F.D.R. Fires New Blasts at High Court

SAYS RULINGS ENDANGER DEMOCRACY

Tells Bourbon Banquet
Crowd He Will Not Compromise Issue

WASHINGTON, (AP)—President Roosevelt's warning that decisions by the supreme court endanger democracy intensified today the dispute over his judiciary program and virtually dispelled hopes for compromise.

Congressional leaders viewed his determination to carry the issue to the people as heralding an historic struggle to reorganize the court, not because of its burdens, but frankly to encourage interpretations of the constitution more in accord with the administration objectives.

Addressing the $100-a-plate Democratic "victory dinner" here last night, the President declared sharply: "Economic freedom for the wage earner and the farmer and the small business man will not wait, like emancipation, for 10 years.

"It will not wait for four years. It will not wait at all." His words were nearly drowned by cheers from the more than 1500 party enthusiasts crowding the brilliantly-lit Mayflower hotel ballroom.

His ambition, he said, is to turn over to his successor "a nation intact, a nation at peace, a nation prosperous, a nation clear in its knowledge of what powers it has to serve its own citizens, a nation that is in a position to use those powers to the full in order to move forward steadily to meet the modern needs of humanity—a nation which has thus proved that the democratic form and methods of national government can and will succeed."

"God bless him!" cried a voice across the room, above a tumult of yells and applause.

Speaking then of concern for the future, Mr. Roosevelt described the American form of government (Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 5)

CABLES WILL DEFEND CITY

LONDON, (AP)—The British air force disclosed its plan today to defend London from an air attack by a cage of steel cables in asking parliament for appropriations that would boost the 1937 cost of Britain's war machine to $1,348,695,000.

The air ministry announced its expense estimates for the current year would reach $412,500,000, or almost double the amount asked for last year.

The Royal Air Force, Viscount Swinton, secretary of state for air, announced, would be increased to 70,000 officers and men with a first line strength of 1750 aircraft organized in 124 squadrons. The special units of an auxiliary air force would be created, he declared, to operate a balloon barrage for the defense of London from the air. Huge fleets of balloons, he explained, would be sent into the air at the first alarm of a hostile raid to drop a network of cables that would cage in the city and ensnare any enemy plane that tried to dash through.

The air estimates disclosed by Lord Swinton pushed the cost of Britain's triple threat war machine beyond the billion dollar mark with its $354,000,000 addition to the $255,325,000 asked by the navy and the $410,870,000 for the army.

Silver Acres Saga Ends

By FRANK ORR

The last verse of the immortal Saga of Silver Acres was being written today.

Mrs. Lucille Bates, who began the ditty last June when she got a lease to the Silver Acres water plant for $5, wasn't mentioned in the last stanza.

No Victory for Waiters!

'Gypped' on Tips at Big Bourbon Dinner

By EDDIE GILMORE

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A group of mathematically-minded waiters eyed today the stacks of dirty dishes from last night's $100-a-plate Democratic victory dinner and calculated they were out just $17,730.

"Let's see," said a big red-faced victuals-juggler, "1800 eaters at $100 a head adds up to what?"

"Right!" chorused the rest. "No," he corrected, "you mean it adds up to $180,000."

"Right."

"And—" he continued, looking around with a smile, "what's a gentleman's tip to be?"

"It ain't enough," chimed in a thin waiter with bushy hair, but the rest managed a salvo of "10 per cent."

"O. K.," said the leader, "and what's 10 per cent of $180,000?"

"Ninety thousand dollars," spoke up a little fellow.

The red-faced man shook his head. "Ten per cent of $180,000 is $18,000," he said.

"Right."

"If there are 300 waiters," he went on, whipping out a pencil stub and an old envelope, "that's 60 bucks apiece. How much did you get, Joe?"

"Forty-five cents," said Joe. "Well," reasoned the leader, "everybody didn't do that bad. Say we got an average of 15 cents a head, that's $270."

He paused to drive home his punch line. "Which means," he said slowly, "we lost $17,730 on the victory dinner."

"Whose victory?" asked the little fellow called Joe.

'VERY SORRY,' U. S. TELLS GERMANY

State Department Makes
Apology for Remarks
By LaGuardia

WASHINGTON, (AP)—The United States apologized to Germany today for remarks made recently by Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia of New York about Chancellor Adolf Hitler.

The state department said that James C. Dunn, chief of the division of western European affairs, in an oral statement to Dr. Hans Thomsen, counselor of the German embassy, said: "Substance: The German government through its embassy here makes complaint against certain utterances of Honorable Fiorello LaGuardia in a public address at the Hotel Astor in New York on March 3, stating that such utterances seriously and severely reflect upon the head of the German state and the German government."

In this country the right of freedom of speech is guaranteed by the constitution to every citizen and is cherished as a part of the national heritage. This, however, does not lessen the regret of the government when utterances of the kind are made. (Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 4)

LABOR SPLIT FIGHT IS ON

Green Forces Line Up
To Battle Lewis'
C.I.O. Drives

(By the Associated Press) Possibilities of a three-way split in the nation's labor leadership diminished today after employee representatives of 18 steel mills sought to align their strength with William Green's American Federation of Labor in opposition to John L. Lewis' Committee for Industrial Organization.

The C. I. O. faction recently won hour and wage concessions from General Motors corporation and many large steel mills. Industrial leaders followed with announcements that they would continue to negotiate with other labor groups and had not granted sole bargaining power to the C. I. O.

Confer With Chrysler In conferences starting today with the Chrysler Motor company, the C. I. O. leaders demanded recognition as sole bargaining agency.

Indicative of the A. F. O. L.'s determination to halt the advance of Lewis' followers was an order to fight the C. I. O. shoe workers' organization campaign in New England.

Two A. F. O. L. units responded to President William Green's call to battle. The Maryland State Federation of Labor ordered city central bodies to suspend Lewis locals. The Cleveland central body suspended unions affiliated with the C. I. O.

Steel Fight Seen The C. I. O. drive in the shoe industry sought organization of all workers in one union. It was the issue of organization by industry or by craft that caused the split between the Lewis and Green groups.

Opposition to the C. I. O. from employees of the steel industry crystallized at a meeting in Pittsburgh. Partisans of the so-called "company unions," comprising a defense committee of employee representatives, mapped plans for combatting the C. I. O. unionization drive among the nation's 550,000 steel workers.

WILKIE TO RATTLE DOORS! Plans Laguna Store Patrol

When a secret service operator, radio artist, writer and friend of presidents decides to settle down and earn some money, what does he do?

That's easy. He goes around seeing if doors are locked.

At least that's what Captain Don Wilkie, Laguna Beach, wants to do.

He asked the beach city council last night for the job of running a merchant patrol in Laguna.

He promised that his operatives would be natty new uniforms. They also would be trained to be courteous, Wilkie said in his application, and would work in cooperation with the police department.

He explained all about his enterprise to the city council.

His application was referred to the public health and safety commissioner, and to the police commissioner for approval.

H.B. Girl Adjudged Beauty Champ

Orange county's coastline "Beauty War" ended in clouds of powder smoke at Huntington Beach last night.

Miss Marian Reeves, blonde Huntington Beach High school student, was declared winner of the contest by virtue of her beauty and personality and also by virtue of a default from Laguna Beach and Newport-Balboa.

Ed Ainsworth, Los Angeles newspaperman who "muscled in" on the county battle, starting his own contest for the most beautiful of four representatives, broke down at a meeting of the chamber of commerce last night and confessed that Miss Reeves was the unqualified winner of the bitter beauty battle. He had called the contest a tie.

Miss Reeves, also present, the dinner, was awarded a round trip to San Francisco by Union Pacific lines, and also was given tickets for a Catalina Island trip, by Ainsworth.

W. H. Gallienne, Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce secretary, in a letter to The Journal today, accused other communities of "taking a run-out powder" from the contest, and urged that his entry, Miss Reeves, be declared winner.

Gallienne explained that a meeting of other chamber secretaries interested in the beauty war was called recently and that "cold water was sprayed over the whole affair."

"It is my opinion that Huntington Beach still has the most beautiful girls," Gallienne said. "After conferring with Mrs. Edna Condon, dean of girls at the high school, who attended the meeting, I realize the truth of her statement. Huntington Beach, with Miss Reeves as representative, stood head and shoulders above all other girls in beauty, charm, personality, poise and dramatic ability."

"In fairness to all," Gallienne added, "even with the inclusion of

Ed Ainsworth, who volunteered to help you further publicize this contest, this secret meeting has a touch of fear, that my friends down the coast did not want to stand on their own feet and back up their statements.

"To bring this to a close," Gallienne said, "I might add that the Huntington Beach Chamber of Commerce always finishes what it starts and does it for the betterment of Huntington Beach and the Orange county coastline."

New WPA Office Here Denied

Nothing doing! In a brief but pointed telegraphic message, State WPA Administrator William R. Lawson today blasted the hopes of Orange county for establishment of a separate WPA district office here. Orange county must remain a part of the San Diego WPA district, Lawson said: "Due to present policy of WPA, establishment of independent office in Orange county is not possible."

Which, in effect, means nothing doing.

Answers Query The state WPA chief replied to a telegram from The Journal which asked him if Orange county could be separated from the San Diego-Orange county combine.

Hopes of Democrats of Orange county, headed by Chairman B. Z. McKinney of the county central committee, that the separation could be made, appeared to be blasted today because of Lawson's stand. The only hope lies in pressure being brought to bear in Washington, D. C., by the local Democrats.

The Democrats have asked each political subdivision of the county, including the county, cities, school districts and other subdivisions to send resolutions to officials in Washington. Many of these subdivisions, which sponsor the WPA projects, already have acted on the matter.

Would Aid County Orange county feels that the entire WPA program here would be benefited by separation from San Diego county. Work would be speeded up and a large group could secure work as administrative employees if the district were split up.

If Orange county cannot be a separate unit, it would prefer to be joined with Riverside and San Bernardino counties in the state setup, Democratic leaders said.

More than 2000 signatures have been secured on a petition asking establishment of the Orange county WPA as an independent unit. The petition was circulated by WPA workers.

In an exclusive story in The Journal yesterday, District Director George White of San Diego said it is all right with him if Orange county is separated from the present district. He explained, however, that the decision rests with Lawson. Lawson said WPA regulations prevent the separation.

WOULD MERGE OFFICES TO CUT COSTS

Uniform Police System
Advocated by Local Tax Committee

A determined stand for consolidation of county governmental functions and elimination of duplicating functions was taken today by the Orange County Farm Bureau.

The farm bureau wants control of governmental functions left as close as possible to the people, but feels that consolidation of functions affords a greater opportunity for efficiency and economy than consolidation of units. The tax committee of the farm bureau announced this policy today.

Examples cited were consolidation of city and county health departments under the county department, city and county assessor's office, city and county tax collector's office, and consolidation of county sealer of weights and measures under jurisdiction of the county agricultural commissioner's office.

"Home Rule" Plan

In a report covering the policies and program of the farm bureau tax committee for the year 1936-37, announced today following a meeting of the board of directors yesterday, the matter of home rule by the board of supervisors received considerable attention.

The bureau advocated holding public budget hearings at which time heads of departments would explain their needs, and costs, as well as answer questions. This, it was said, would serve the same general purpose as an annual stockholders' meeting.

The report said a thorough analysis should be made to determine if consolidations would be in the public interest. The belief was expressed that a study of overlapping functions would disclose methods by which overlapping could be overcome.

Duplicate Records As an illustration, it was cited that in the case of school records, the county school superintendent, county treasurer and county auditor are required by law to keep certain specific records. This duplication, it was said, exists with respect to many other functions.

"It is a recognized fact," the report said, "that only very little cooperation exists between our three local police units, that is, the sheriff, the constable and the municipal police departments. In (Please Turn to Page 2, Col. 1)

REBELS WARN THE FRENCH

SALAMANCA, Spain, (AP)—The Spanish insurgent regime accused France today of fomenting disturbances in Spanish Morocco in order to force a pretext for invading the territory held by Generalissimo Francisco Franco's armies.

Declaring any attempt at aggression against Spanish Morocco would be met with "an adequate reply," the insurgent diplomatic cabinet lodged a strong note of protest with all signatory powers to the Algeiras convention.

MINE SINKS GREEK BOAT; ONE SURVIVES

MADRID, (AP)—One dying man—unable to tell a coherent story—was found by Catalan fishermen after the Greek tanker Lukia hit a mine off Cape Creus and blew up.

(The tanker, loaded with gasoline, had a crew of 24, dispatches said.)

Fishermen hurried to the debris-strewn area a mile off shore after a tremendous explosion which sent clouds of dense smoke billowing into the sky. There were many bodies in the sea, they said, but only one man was still alive.

PLAN CHANGE IN WELFARE RULING

Officials Study Means To Harmonize Law And Practice

Plans to bring the archaic ordinance governing the Orange county welfare department up to date and into conformity with the established practice are being discussed today by Welfare Director Jack Snow and District Attorney W. F. Menton.

Supervisors have asked the two officials to prepare a new ordinance to be presented soon at a board meeting.

It provides also that aid can be given only from a prescribed list; in other words, merchandise orders.

In actual practice the office always has had its own property division to search titles and investigate property. This department is headed by William Penn.

Further, according to Snow, it has been found practical in some instances to give part cash in relief cases, and the custom has been established over a period of years.

But Snow, in order to have everything regular, wants either to conform to a rather clumsy law, or change the law. Supervisors have given tacit approval of the legal change.

Because of state and federal participation in relief, most phases of the department's activities are prescribed by state and federal regulations, rather than by county laws, Snow pointed out.

Relief for the aged, children, and blind come under this classification.

the case of the constable, he performs very little service as a criminal officer for which he receives a salary. Most of his time is devoted to the civil work of his office for which he collects a fee for the services rendered.

It was pointed out that law agencies dislike stepping into territory of others. The question was raised as to why it is not practical for a county such as Orange to have uniform police protection.

It also was suggested that serious consideration should be given to whether fewer justice courts would prove both more efficient and more practical.

Concerning roads, the report advocated a policy of no more property taxes for roads unless specifically voted by the people; that no more special road districts be formed unless voted by the people. In regard to schools, the report pany, and was operating the pumping plant, scene of last fall's "battle of the pumphouse."

The company, according to authorities here, had the almost-unanimous approval of Silver Acres property owners in taking over operation of the water plant, a bone of contention for 10, these 20 years or more. Mrs. Bates, whose husband and father-in-law own property there, didn't give her approval.

Mountain Properties will operate the plant under jurisdiction of the state railroad commission, and has agreed to charge not more than $1.50 a month as a domestic water rate. Later, the railroad commission will fix definite rates.

Neighbors reported today that a Mountain Properties agent was already on the job, collecting water bills and establishing contracts. He even called on Mrs. Bates yesterday afternoon, they said, and had words with her. And vice versa.

Mrs. Bates popped into the picture last spring when her father-in-law, Dora Bates, West Fifth street barber, got the $5 lease from the state and took over the pumphouse.

Neighbors wouldn't pay Mrs. Bates, but kept paying power bills to a committee and ignored the lessees. Mrs. Bates turned the water off twice.

The second time, 30 thirsty families stormed the pumphouse, escorted Mrs. Bates outside, started the pump, and began a vigil which continued for several weeks. Later, it was reported that Mrs. Bates' lease—by this time she had a power of attorney from Dora Bates—had been cancelled. She denied it.

Today Mrs. Bates has the lease, cancelled or uncanceled. Charges of forcible entry and unlawful detainer which she preferred against most of the neighborhood after the "battle" are still pending in Huntington Beach justice court. And Silver Acres has water.

Injures Back in Fall From Tree

Falling from a tree in Costa Mesa this morning, Edward Ellis, telephone company employee, sustained painful back injuries and was being treated this afternoon at St. Joseph's hospital.

Hospital attendants said his condition was good. Ellis was working near Twentieth and Orange streets in Costa Mesa when he slipped and fell. He was rushed to the hospital by the Orange County Ambulance service.

URGE GUARDING OF FORESTS

California conservation week will be launched on Monday, and the Orange County Forestry Protective association plans to have a part in the observance.

John Osterman, chairman of the association, which is the forestry department of the Farm bureau, said today the chief objective must be to bring public sentiment behind the enforcement of laws and regulation governing the natural resources.

He said the cooperation of officials, schools, leaders of civic organizations and individuals is necessary. The conservation program embraces forests and parks, prevention of fires, developing and conserving water resources, soil conservation, protecting wild life and sea life, protection of beaches and enforcement of laws.

NEW FURNITURE STORE HERE

A new business came to Santa Ana today.

A modern furniture store soon will occupy the former Santa Ana Times building on East Fifth street between Main and Bush.

The store will be owned and operated by Don Andrews, who for many years was connected with another local furniture store. He also has been a member of the Santa Ana Country club and other organizations.

Plans for occupying the store were made following a transaction completed by Charles Davis, associated with C. L. Mock, real estate dealer, R. C. McMillan, contractor, is remodeling the building for Andrews.

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Mrs. Ellen McAdoo De Onate, granddaughter of President Wilson, asked court permission today to take deposition of her father, Senator William Gibbs McAdoo, in Washington, D. C., in connection with her divorce suit.

Mrs. De Onate is seeking a divorce from Rafael Lopez De Onate, film actor, charging he failed to support her. De Onate, in his answer, asserted Senator McAdoo attempted to prevent their marriage and afterwards sent them to Europe for two years.

"I very earnestly deprecate the utterances which have thus given offense to the German government. They do not represent the attitude of this government toward the German government. It is our policy to conduct the official relation with other nations upon a basis of complete and mutual respect for the rights and sensibilities of each other."

NAZI PRESS BLASTS LA GUARDIA AND U. S.

BERLIN. (AP)—The United States embassy today transmitted to Washington a full report on LaGuardia and "crime conditions" in New York, appearing in Der Angriff, the newspaper of Dr. Paul Joseph Goebbels, German minister of propaganda and public enlightenment.

The embassy made no comment on its report, forwarded to the state department.

Der Angriff, which yesterday filled columns—as did other newspapers—with a stormy attack on Mayor LaGuardia personally for his "hall of horrors" remark before a meeting of Jewish women, today ran a series of news photos intended to show New York and the United States as "the land of freedom—for all gangsters."

Lehman Also
One picture showed a menaced prisoner, "bank robber number one," who has not yet reached the stage of mayor or governor.

Another photograph purported to depict the family of a New York slayer "kneeling at the gates of Sing Sing" to give thanks to "Jehovah and his faithful servant, the Jew George Lehman," for saving his kinsman from the electric chair.

The newspaper said Gov. Herbert Lehman, "LaGuardia's bosom friend," had seen to it that the man, whom Angriff identified as a subway holdup killer, "was allowed to remain alive."

Rap State Department
Der Angriff, in another place, assailed the "shilly shally" treatment of the LaGuardia case by the Washington state department, which incites LaGuardia to ever new insults and carnavals this (New York) as a state in which 12 million humans have no other liberty except that of dying silently of hunger in the gutter."

The new Nazi press outburst against LaGuardia resulted from his suggestion before the Jewish women's meeting in New York Wednesday that the 1937 New York world's fair have a "hall of horrors," the chief figure in which would be "that brown-skinned fanatic" who, he said, was menacing world peace.

LA GUARDIA REPEATS REMARKS ABOUT HITLER
NEW YORK. (AP)—Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia today "stood by and repeated" remarks which suited in an angry outburst in the German press and caused the United States to apologize to Germany.

Silent until he was informed that the apology had been made in Washington, LaGuardia said: "I still stand by what I said and repeat it again."

Aguinaldo Seeks Islands' Freedom
MANILA. (AP)—General Emilio Aguinaldo, who led the Philippine insurrection against the United States at the turn of the century, announced he will go to Washington soon to seek complete independence for the islands during the Roosevelt administration.

Aguinaldo is against waiting until 1946 for the end of the present Philippine commonwealth transitional government for the freedom which the United States has promised.

The 67-year-old general, defeated by Manuel L. Quezon for the commonwealth presidency in 1935, will be accompanied by Juan Sumulong, former Philippine senator, another opponent of Quezon's policies. The plan to reach Washington by way of Europe.

MORE ABOUT ROOSEVELT

—executive, legislative and judicial—as a three-horse team. Without mentioning the supreme court—he did not name it at any time—he said three horses working together could plow a field.

If one horse lies down in the traces or plunges off in another direction, the field will not be ploughed," he proceeded cryptically. Again cheers rang out.

By this time the President was warming to his subject in his best campaign style. At first, he had spoken deliberately, sometimes with laughter in his voice.

Reviews Court Rulings
In quick order, Mr. Roosevelt spoke of how the AAA, of NRA, the Guffey coal act, the first railroad retirement act were successfully outlawed as the child labor statute had been outlawed 20 years before.

"You know who assumed the power to veto, and did veto that program," he reiterated after mentioning each law.

Recalling the decision which ended NRA regulation of hours and wages and the subsequent decision against a state wage law, he said these declared no legal power existed for the nation "to deal with its most difficult problems—a no man's land of final utility."

Injunctions Paralyzing
"Furthermore," he continued, raising his hand for silence, "for I'm not through yet, court injunctions have paralyzed the machinery which we created by the labor relations act to settle great disputes raging in the industrial field."

"We hope that this act may yet escape final condemnation by the highest court," he said, disclaiming the unwritten tradition whereby decisions impending in the court are not made subject of comment by officials in other branches.

A decision in the Wagner act cases may come next Monday.

Time and again, in referring to the policies behind New Deal laws which have been invalidated, the President "defied" anyone to read the opinions of the court and tell what, if anything, could be done at this session of congress to effect those policies "with any reasonable certainty that what we do will not be nullified as unconstitutional."

"Can't Afford to Run"
Affirming his belief in those policies, he said:

"We cannot afford, either individually or as a party, to postpone or run from that fight on advice of deafist lawyers."

"There is one-third of a nation ill-nourished, ill-clad, ill-housed—now!" he exclaimed.

In short, pointed sentences he referred to the farm problem, "inadequate pay," child labor, strikes, threats of flood and dust-storms crossing state lines, and added each time the same word—"now!"

"If we would keep faith with those who had faith in us, if we would make democracy succeed, I say we must act—now!"

Back to White House
With that, he looked across the room, waved repeatedly to the shouting, applauding crowd as it stood to bid him farewell, and then returned to the White House.

Despite opposition by some leaders in his own party, to his proposal for enlarging the highest court unless aged justices retire, the strength of the Democratic organization was being marshalled today in support of the Roosevelt views.

Comments by cabinet members and some leading senators as they turned homeward from the dinner indicated they were counting on a tremendous public reaction in the President's favor.

While messages accumulated at the White House, the opposition both in the senate and house took steps to strike back without delay. Senator Glass (D., Va.) and Senator Borah (R., Idaho) were mentioned as prospective spokesmen, to be ready possibly Monday when the senate reconvenes.

Aware of the threatened party schism, Mr. Roosevelt indicated a readiness to let the dissenters go their way rather than sacrifice his objectives in labor, farm and social legislation.

'Will Take Courage'
"It will take courage to let our minds be bold and meet the needs of the nation," he said slowly. "But for our party, now as always, the counsel of courage is the counsel of wisdom."

The Orange County Farm bureau does not favor state appropriations for land and buildings at the Los Angeles livestock show.

The dinner, bringing together the heads of nearly all government agencies and many of the rank and file, was one of 1263 held simultaneously in 43 states and the territories.

The managers estimated about $400,000 was raised toward paying off the $430,000 party deficit. More than 500,000 persons attended the dinners, and heard the President by radio.

NOTE IN BOTTLE TELLS TRAGEDY

MOSCOW. (AP)—The mystery of the disappearance of the Russian icebreaker Shaumian in the Caspian sea last year was believed cleared up today. Fishermen along the Caspian's shores found a bottle containing what purported to be a note from the Shaumian's crew which said:

"We are dying. Heavy seas have torn the rudder loose and the ship is full of water and sinking. We have lost our bearings and given up hope."

The Shaumian was lost Feb. 16, 1936, the note said.

KIDNAP CASE
UNEARTHED
BY ARREST

John M. White, alias Alfred Palmer, facing charges of grand theft here, is wanted in Bakersfield on two counts of statutory offenses against small girls, one count of robbery, and for investigation of kidnapping, Santa Ana police were informed today.

White was arrested two days ago as he returned a borrowed car to a Santa Ana agency. Police said he had made a practice of going to car dealers, asking for demonstration automobiles, and then abandoning them after using them for an evening.

Grand theft charges were lodged against him here after Miss Lola Lomborg, 20, of Orange, told police White had taken her for a ride in one of the borrowed cars, and then stolen her wrist watch. He originally was arrested on vagrancy charges.

It was not known today whether the grand theft charge will be pressed against White here before he is turned over to Bakersfield police. Local detectives searched White's room at the Finley hotel yesterday and found blood-stained clothing, they said, apparently bearing out the Bakersfield accusation.

White was recently released from the Visalia jail after serving a seven months sentence for contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

H. B. Lads Accused
Of Pipe Thefts

Two young Huntington Beach boys were arrested at their homes today by county authorities, charged with thefts of oil pipe and fittings from Orange county wells during the past month.

Most recent victim was G. G. Bailey, Trabuco canyon. Investigation of the theft of a truckload of pipe from its well led to the two boys, who admitted stealing the pipe and selling it to junk dealers in Long Beach.

Their names are withheld by The Journal on account of their youth.

Theft at Legion
Hall Is Solved

Burglary of the American Legion hall in Buena Park and the Joe Sullivan real estate office there was solved today when county authorities arrested two boys, 11 and 8 years of age, and held them for juvenile court.

The boys admitted the theft of $6.80 from the American Legion hall on Sunday. Nothing of value was taken from the real estate office.

ELKS EAT FOR FOUR HOURS

They ate from 7:30 o'clock until nearly midnight!

More than 100 members of the Santa Ana Elks club gathered last night to enjoy what probably was the most sumptuous banquet ever staged in this city.

It was in the form of a reward for the good Elks who secured new members for the lodge. Those that didn't get a new member paid $7.50 for the dinner.

Myrtle the Turtle was served in the form of savory turtle soup. Eight whole roast pigs formed the major part of the dinner, which included so many items that the dinner lasted for about four hours.

Following the banquet, a vaudeville show was staged.

American Children Express Themselves

See These Dresses Modeled at 3 P. M. Saturday

Whatsit Dresses will be modeled informally, beginning at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. They will be presented in the Girls' Shop on the third floor.

WHAT SIT DRESSES

* Designs by Children for Children
* Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

1.95 and 2.95

Bubbling over with bright ideas, American Children, like their elders, express themselves. They paint and draw. They exhibit their pictures, prize winners, good enough for museums to buy. They publish a paper, a grand one, The WHATSIT. They not only collect stamps, they design them. The WHATSIT conducted a stamp contest. Children all over the country competed. From the winning designs, the original fabrics in Whatsit Dresses were printed. Children adore them and their parents are mad about them.

American Children ARE FASHION Conscious!

WHAT SIT DRESSES reflect the most important fashions of grown-ups. Your daughters will be thrilled with princess lines, swing skirts, peasant details, dirndl skirts, and boleros. You will be enchanted with both the high fashion, the good taste, and the bewitching low price. Sizes 2 to 6, and sizes 7 to 14, at 1.95 and 2.95.

Ask about the details of the new Whatsit Design Contest. Your child will adore to compete.

JUDGE RULES TUESDAY ON TOWNSEND

Motion for New Trial
Is Made by Pension
Chief's Attorney

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Federal District Judge Peyton Gordon took under consideration yesterday a motion for a new trial for Dr. Francis E. Townsend, old-age pension leader convicted last week of contempt of the house of representatives.

Justice Gordon said he would announce his decision Tuesday.

Elisba Hanson, Townsend's attorney, said his client's conviction of contempt for walking out on a house investigating committee should be set aside because Townsend had not been given an opportunity to justify his action.

District Attorney Leslie C. Carnett replied Townsend's belief that he was justified in walking out on the committee was an "after thought."

Townsend, tall, gray-haired Californian, listened quietly to the argument and said he had no apprehension over the outcome of his motion.

Safety Awards For 2 Airlines

CHICAGO, (AP)—Two aviation transport companies, Eastern Airlines and Northwest Airlines, were named recipients of National Safety Council awards today for "never having had a passenger accident fatality throughout their entire operating history."

W. H. Cameron, managing director of the council, said Eastern Airlines was credited with 141,794,894 passenger miles without a fatality, and Northwest Airlines had 48,768,411 fatality-free passenger miles.

Salinas Feels Sharp Quake

SALINAS, (AP)—A sharp earthquake was felt here at 4:30 a. m. today. No damage was reported.

Townsend News, Views

By WALTER R. ROBB

(Opinions and comment expressed in this column are not necessarily those of The Journal—Editor's note.)

Costa Mesa Club No. 2 is meeting in the Lindbergh school tonight. At 6:30 a pot-luck dinner will be enjoyed. Everybody bring their own table service and something good to eat.

At 7:30 the club president will call the business session to order.

Rev. S. L. Wingert of Yucaipa and president of the 19th district Townsend board will be the speaker.

Those who became acquainted with Rev. Wingert during the Harry R. Sheppard campaign will rejoice at the opportunity of hearing him.

Santa Ana club No. 10 will hold its regular weekly meeting at 7:30 tonight in its new meeting place in Townsend theater, 218 East Fourth street.

Eugene Marks, president, announces that the N. Y. A. orchestra will be playing from 7 to 8 o'clock. At the latter hour the business session of the club will convene and shortly after the Rev. David M. Sayers will be introduced as the speaker of the evening. The public is invited.

Roy Webb will be back in town again tonight. He has been secured to address the Santa Ana club No. 11 meeting which will be held at 7:30 this evening in the Franklin school at 1512 West Fourth street.

Grant Henderson, president, who will preside, urges the membership to be in attendance. The Townsendites will remember Webb as the former 19th district Townsend organizer who during the last two years has been connected with the national Townsend headquarters in Chicago.

Hoyt Wyckoff, publicity chairman of the Garden Grove club, writes this column asking the following be included in tonight's write-up: "The Garden Grove club will hold a pot-luck supper Monday evening, March 8th in the American Legion hall beginning at 6:30 o'clock. Following the supper a program of varied entertainment will be given. All friends of the Townsend movement are cordially invited to attend."

Santa Ana club No. 9 will hold a meeting tonight at 7:30 in the Edison school on East St. Gertrude street.

Frank Kendall will address the meeting. Cake and coffee will be served after the meeting according to C. A. Holloway, club secretary.

Santa Ana club No. 7 is scheduled to meet at 7:30 this evening in the Orange Avenue Christian church, at the corner of McFadden and Orange avenues. Peter Benthien, president, will preside.

District Manager J. H. Walsh is conducting a Townsend institute for the clubs of San Bernardino in that city tonight. Walsh, under the direction of the 19th district board, has completed arrangements whereby the Townsend hall at 509 West Fourth street will hereafter be under the management of the district board and the district manager. The Townsend theater building also will be continued as a Townsend gathering place. That doesn't look as if the Townsend movement was dying does it?

A Townsend cafeteria style supper is being served in Townsend hall at 509 West Fourth street from 5:30 to 7:30 tomorrow night. At 8 o'clock a countywide mass meeting will convene in the same place. The Hurd-Lentz orchestra is scheduled to give a concert in the early part of the evening during the supper. Rev. S. L. Wingert of Yucaipa and president of the 19th district Townsend board will be the main speaker of the evening.

Rev. Josiah Tucker of Placentia is addressing the Townsend institute in San Bernardino this afternoon. This evening Col. Ralph D. Horton of Los Angeles will be speaking to the institute gathering.

The Daily News Tribune of Fullerton has requested the Townsend clubs of that city to prepare a write-up of the history of the Townsend work in that part of the county. The Tribune is preparing to edit a special celebration edition in recognition of the 50th birthday of the city of Fullerton and wants the history write-up of the Townsend clubs for the special edition. The letter requesting the write-up was addressed to John McCormick of Fullerton club No. 2. The celebration edition will be issued some time in May according to reports coming to the writer of this column.

Predicts McNutt To Be Candidate

SACRAMENTO, (AP)—At least one California legislator considers former Gov. Paul V. McNutt of Indiana the probable Democratic nominee for president in 1940.

He was so described by Assemblywoman Jeanette Daley, San Diego, as the assembly adopted a resolution inviting him to appear before the legislature when en route to his new post as United States high commissioner to the Philippine Islands.

SEEKS FORECLOSURE

Acting as special administrator of the estate of Charlotte E. Goebel, G. E. Baum today had started suit in superior court against James P. Cote to foreclose two $1000 mortgages.

COURT PLAN BACKED BY BOURBONS

If there is a Democrat in Orange county opposed to President Roosevelt's plan to change the supreme court, he was afraid to say so last night.

At a victory dinner which packed the Masonic temple dining room, hundreds of Democrats adopted without a "no" vote, a resolution in favor of the plan. Offered by C. Harold Dale, the resolution is to be forwarded to state and national representatives.

The action came after the group had heard the President's radio address attacking the court, and after Maurice Norcop, Los Angeles attorney and Democratic leader, had analyzed the past history of supreme court changes.

"Are the opposition afraid of democracy, or afraid of democracy?" challenged Norcop.

A former assistant U. S. attorney general, Norcop was an original Roosevelt man in 1932, heading the speakers' bureau of the Roosevelt-Garner campaign.

Highlight of the evening's program, arranged by Martell Thompson, was the singing of the Santa Ana choristers, one of four WPA musical organizations in the county.

Under the direction of Mrs. Dudley Page Harper, the group brought a fine selection of numbers; followed with "Blue Danube Waltz" as an encore; and led the gathering in "Happy Days Are Here Again."

B. Z. McKinney, chairman of the county Democratic central committee, was toastmaster.

Woman Argues Own Case; Loses

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Mrs. Morah Collier, active in Colorado Springs social circles, served as her own attorney during a divorce suit, cross-examining her estranged husband, but lost her case.

A six-man jury deliberated only 45 minutes before awarding a divorce decree to Verne S. Collier, lumber dealer, and throwing out Mrs. Collier's action for separate maintenance.

Car Crashes Into Auto Agency

He may have wanted a new car. If he did, he picked an unusual method of getting it.

When officials of the Nash agency, Fifth and Birch streets, came to work this morning, they found someone's car had hurdled the curb last night and crashed into the front of the building.

The brick framework under two windows were broken out.

Harpist And Quintet Thrill Santa Ana Audience

By BETTY COX

The harp, that "instrument of the angels," took on new meaning for mortal ears last night when Alberto Salvi, world famous harpist, picked from its golden strings music of infinite beauty, melodies sublime.

Bringing with him to Santa Ana a quartet of youthful artists, who proved in their finished performance that music be both dignified and young, Salvi provided a brilliant climax to the series of concerts which will conclude on April 2 with a recital by the Ted Shawn male dance troupe.

Assisting artists of the evening were Caroline Solfronk, flutist; Herman Clebanoss, violinist; Robert Alexa, violist, and Alfred Mazzari, cellist.

Harp Featured

To open the program, the violin, viola, cello and harp joined in the four movements of a sonata by Jean Baptiste Loeillet, celebrated flutist and harpsichordist who died in 1728.

Substituting flute for harp in the ensemble for the second number, the group chose from among the works of Mozart a quartet in D major, in which the harp had free play, carrying the theme with sustained sweetness through the allegro and adagio movements and joining with the other instruments in the spirited rondo.

Not in five announced solos and two encores could the audience get its fill of harp music, and Salvi was called back repeatedly for stage appearances following each of his two groups.

Impressive Finale

Deepest quiet reigned from beginning to end of each of his pieces, so that even those soft notes with which harp solos attain their finale were heard in the farthest corners of the auditorium.

Salvi's selections included "Etude in A Flat," by Chopin; "Bourree, B Minor," by Bach-Salvi; "Minuetto," by Haydn, and two of the player's own compositions, "The Fountain" and "Waltz de Concert." These last two, beautiful in themselves, were enhanced by

Traffic Accident Injures Three

Two persons were treated at the Santa Ana Valley hospital and one in the county hospital last night for injuries received in a traffic crash at the intersection of Sixth and French streets.

Curtis Carlisle, passenger in one of the cars, suffered severe cuts and bruises on both arms. He was taken to the county hospital. Lester Rohrs, Orange, and Miss Margaret Schlosser, passenger and driver of one of the cars, were taken to the hospital, suffering from shock.

The second car was driven by Eugene Armstrong, 1517 West Second street.

the artistry of the musician, as were the works of the masters which he included in his numbers.

Gustlin Talks

Two quintette groups, one in the first half and one at the end, rounded out the program. "Variations Libres et Finale, Opus 51," by Pierre, and "Quintette," by Jean Cras, called forth the best in each of the musicians and each of the instruments, but gave evidence at the same time of power still in reserve, the essence of true artistry.

During the intermission, Clarence Gustlin, who is local manager of the Behymer-Wilson Artist series, of which last night's concert was a part, announced plans for next season, which will include a symphony, a possible appearance of the Vienna Boys' choir, and three other concerts to be scheduled. The series of concerts, presented in the high school auditorium, is given locally under the auspices of the Musical Arts club.

Crash Victims Get First Aid

Two were treated for cuts and bruises as the aftermath of a city traffic crash yesterday at 7:45 p. m.

Cars driven by Ann Liemer, 702 Highland street, and Mrs. Dora Wells, Garden Grove, collided at the intersection of First and Main streets.

Shirley Mae Liemer, 11, and Irene Wells, daughter of Mrs. Wells, were injured.

Much Tear Gas Bought in State

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A report by the Federal Laboratories of Pittsburgh to the United States senate civil liberties committee shows sales of tear and other gas and equipment in California since 1933 totalled $48,255. Most sales were to county and city law enforcement agencies.

Fire at Asylum Is Extinguished

NAPA, Calif. (AP)—A storeroom fire at the state hospital for the insane was extinguished yesterday with little disturbance to the inmates. Thirty were in a building near the blaze and were led to safety. Damage was slight.

BIGELOW WEAVER'S "CLIFTON"

The Clifton is an Axminster rug of standard quality. It is the undisputed leader in the popular price field because of its wearing qualities and its exceptionally fine, smooth finish. It is woven of two-ply wool yarn and dyed with bright, clear colors. The infinite care used in its weaving, finishing and inspection makes the Clifton rug the most outstanding value in its price class.

There are three new "direct" modern designs in the Clifton line. By "direct" we mean modern motifs on solid grounds.

This is just one of the lines by Bigelow Weavers . . . see the complete assortments in all grades of rugs and broadlooms, at Horton's.

STARTS NEW APPLIANCE STORE

Business is thrilling to Frederic Dunstan, head of the Dunstan Electric company at 213 North Broadway, who announced opening of the establishment today.

Dunstan finds the modern home appliances business particularly thrilling, for it enables him to help people enjoy the fruits of modern invention. His business is the franchised Hotpoint retail representative in this area.

The store, newly decorated, is one of the most attractive in the city and affords an appropriate setting for the huge stock of new 1937 Hotpoint electric refrigerators now on display. Dunstan likes to run an attractive showroom so that women will enjoy looking at the appliances which do so much to eliminate the drudgery of housekeeping.

"We are proud of the Hotpoint line," Dunstan said, "because we feel that it exemplifies the highest quality house appliances possible to obtain." He pointed out that the Hotpoint line is well known in this section, because its products first were manufactured in Ontario near here, where one of the main plants still is.

Dunstan is a native son of California. He recently has been associated with the United States Rubber company in the wholesale department as divisional manager. He has been in the East 10 years. When he returned to California he selected Santa Ana for his business because, for one reason, he liked the friendly people.

His son, Robert Dunstan, 22, a Duke university graduate, will be associated with him, as will Don Wyckoff and Edmund Graski, principals of the B and G Appliance company, which the new firm succeeds. The new concern has six on the payroll, but soon will have 10.

Lindy Blushes Under Praise

CALCUTTA, India. (AP)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh blushed when an Indian poetess compared his accomplishments with those of Buddha, Galileo and other spiritual figures of the world.

The poetess, Mrs. Sarojini Naidu, at the meeting of the parliament of religions, praised his achievements as "part of the world spirit of faith rendered into action."

Colonel Lindbergh and Mrs. Lindbergh, who is accompanying him on his flights over India, were occupying prominent seats at the meeting.

Lathrop Junior High News

Lathrop students were interested to hear that, several days ago, a gentleman asked to see Mr. Nelson, Lathrop's principal, and introduced himself as Mr. Lathrop. He was the brother of Julia C. Lathrop, for whom our school was named. Driving through the state, he saw the name of the school, and stopped to see us. He said that we had honored his sister more than the little town in which she had lived. Students will all be wanting to read the biography of this splendid woman. It is called The Life of Julia Lathrop, and may be borrowed from the Lathrop branch library.

Miss Nicholson's class has been making an interesting study of Europe with pictures and discussions as a basis for their work.

Students in Mrs. Francis Bee-son's social studies classes have been enjoying reports from the magazine, "Every Week" which they use in connection with their class work.

Miss Blythe's literature classes have been very much interested in Swedish and Greek newspapers brought by John Wood, and Andrzej Pappas, for display on the bulletin board.

Educational pictures of Alaska were a part of Mr. Scott's general science work last week.

Boys who are on the Red team in basketball are: Crumley, Yoder, Shallenberger, Yarbrough, Sorenson, Musick, Pritchard, Miles and Schultz. The Green team members are Morrison, Orty, Roussos, Quintana, Brown, Flores, Salyer, Spain and Blackwell.

Home room managers for the boys intramural games are Baker, Aguilera, Fishbrough, Lee, McCain, Musick, Paxton, Acker, Danielson, Granados, Patterson, Yoder, Villalobos, Bob Musick and Salyer.

The H9 social studies classes at Lathrop are doing some excellent outside reading. Miss Calkins arranged to have two shelves of recommended books put aside for these classes, and Miss Leila Thrasher and Miss Rideout brought their students to the library to introduce them to the books. As a result of this, the books have been circulating fast and furiously.

Some of the most popular of these books are: Dumas, The Count of Monte Cristo; Dumas, The Three Musketeers; Lytton, The Last Days of Pompeii; Byron, The Rime of the Ancient Mariner; The Poetess, Mrs. Sarojini Naidu, at the meeting of the parliament of religions, praised his achievements as "part of the world spirit of faith rendered into action." Colonel Lindbergh and Mrs. Lindbergh, who is accompanying him on his flights over India, were occupying prominent seats at the meeting.

SPECULATING BY BANKS IS REPORTED

WASHINGTON. (AP)—Administration officials, surveying developments since President Roosevelt's "holiday" slammed bank doors shut, said today a new set of banking problems has sprung from business recovery.

It was four years ago today that Mr. Roosevelt rounded out his first full day in office with hurried conferences culminating in the order to dam a steady, fear-inspired drain on bank deposits.

Since then, deposits have climbed about $20,000,000,000, capital has increased $2,000,000,000, and recoveries and profits on securities have reinforced the banking structure.

Citing these figures, Chairman Leo T. Crowley of the Federal Deposit Insurance corporation said nevertheless that regulatory eyes must be cocked on newly-developing questions.

"What we are skeptical of is the banks' speculation in securities in the place of making profits from ordinary operations," he said. "Our examiners find evidence of that every single day."

Lawrence took first in the broad, jumping 13' 7". The shot was put 28' 6" by Roussos of Lathrop. The six man relay was narrowly won by Lathrop.

Home room managers for the boys' intramural games are Aguilera, Baker, Fishbrough, Lee, McCain, Musick, Paxton, Acker, Danielson, Granados, Patterson, Yoder, Villalobos, Jiles, Bob Musick and Salyer.

The Lathrop operetta "Tune In" was a grand success last Friday night in the high school auditorium. The characters were as follows: Mizzi—Maurine Waters; Jerry Kennedy—Richard Watson; Jean Kroggins—Marjorie Johnson; Joe Brown—Bill Was; Mrs. Kroggins—Ruth Wallace; Mr. Kroggins—Cecil Han; Tilly, Milly, and Billy were played by Mary Ruth McDougal, Beverly Short, and Betty Haynes, a girls trio; Dave was played by Ben Pannel; Bob, by De Witt Springmyer; J. Bottlenly Binks, the announcer, by James Carlisle; and Archibald Throckmorton by Jack Atwood. Sam Campbell sang several solos. Lysander Pipp was played by John Coleman and of course the rest of the boys' and girls' glee clubs completed the cast.

The drama club is starting three new plays entitled: "Who Says Can't?", "His First Girl," and "His First Shave." These are expected to be very good.

Fricker And Heil Announce Smudge Nuisance Solution

Fricker and Heil, Orange countystallations and, wherever possible, representatives for fugit smokeless orchard heaters, today announced solution of the smudge problem. The heaters are smokeless and conform to all late ordinances governing heater operation, according to Fricker and Heil.

The Orange county representatives are local men. They said they intend to buy home materials, employ home labor for the installation of the heaters.

Actress Again Seeks Divorce

HOLLYWOOD. (AP)—Adrienne Ames has sued for a second decree ending her marriage to Bruce Cabot, actor.

Her first divorce papers, awarded last July, were nullified when Cabot flew to a reconciliation with her in New York. In January they parted again.

INDUSTRY IS PROSPEROUS ONCE MORE

Net Profits for Last Year Total More Than Seven Billions

NEW YORK (AP)—American industry made a long stride in 1936 toward prosperity of thumping proportions, analysts agreed today as they studied data indicating net profits exceeded $7,000,000,000 to rank it as the best year since the 1929 peak.

The tentative estimate, which would indicate a 30 per cent advance from 1935, although 40 per cent under the $11,654,000,000 earned in 1929, was based on statements from 1,000 corporations and experience with reports of previous years.

Reports already available indicate a 50 per cent hike in net profits over 1935, but statisticians, in placing total net profits at $7,000,000,000 or possibly more, pointed out that wider gains usually are shown in the earlier reports in a period of recovery.

The 1936 net was $6,429,000,000. Some analysts saw in the vastly improved condition of the American industry a partial explanation for the readiness with which huge corporations in the motor, steel and other industries, have jacked up wages in response to labor demands for a larger share in the fruits of recovery.

Many large companies have still to report and the complete tabulation of earnings of 500,000 odd concerns which file income tax returns will not be available for two years.

House Is Burned In Filming of 'Black Legion'

A two-story modern house, complete in all details, was built to be burned for the screen drama, "Black Legion," now showing at the West Coast theater. After the home life of its residents has been shown, in various rooms, there is a visit by the black-robed terrors of the night who put the torch to the place.

This scene provides but one of the many graphic sketches of the most thrilling story ever brought to the screen from the headlines of the newspapers. Humphrey Bogart, who scored such a hit as the gang leader in "Petrified Forest," has the leading role.

Henry Fonda and the new screen sensation, Annabella, share starring honors in the natural color film, "Wings of the Morning," on the same bill. John MacCormack, famed tenor, has a prominent part in this story of Ireland and race horses.

NAZIS PROBE FIRE
BERLIN (AP)—Anti-sabotage details of the German secret police are conducting an intensive investigation of a fire which destroyed numerous documents in an annex of Germany's war ministry, reliable sources disclosed today. The fire, occurring Monday night, destroyed several offices and "valuable papers," it was disclosed.

Big Attraction

Picking up 500 pounds of scrap iron at a time, this giant electromagnet loaded nearly 500 tons of iron this week at the Rice Auto Wrecking yard, Santa Ana. It was used by Eastern Iron & Metal company of Los Angeles, which shipped the iron East to be remelted and made into steel and other products.

GOODWILL CHIEF TO VISIT HERE

Arrangements for the scheduled Orange county visit of Dr. Edgar J. Helms, founder of Goodwill Industries, on March 17, will include a breakfast in his honor, given that morning at the First Methodist church of Santa Ana, it was announced today by George F. Angne, Orange county superintendent of Goodwill Industries. The breakfast will be served at 9 a. m.

Following it will be a day of inspection of the Goodwill Industries work in this county, and its two stores, located in Anaheim and Santa Ana.

Dr. Helms made his last visit here 18 months ago. Since that time the organization has made rapid progress. Dr. Helms, who started life as an Iowa farm boy, later entering the ministry and becoming engaged in missionary work, founded what has grown to be a great world benevolent movement in Goodwill Industries, the start being made with a cooperative store in Boston, where Dr. Helms now resides.

Goodwill Industry, based on the principle, "Not charity, but a chance," has spread into 32 states and more than 100 cities and towns, also having four branches in Canada, five in Australia, and branches in India, Japan, China, the Philippines, Ceylon, Mexico, Norway and Uruguay.

DOUGLAS STARS IN NEW COMEDY

"Women of Glamour," a drama leavened with comedy, is the supporting feature on the program with Joe E. Brown's newest comedy hit, "When Your Birthday," at the Broadway theater. Virginia Bruce and Melvyn Douglas are starred.

The story tells of a young artist who lives in contempt of the sham and selfishness of his set. Running out on a party that was given to unveil his latest canvas, he meets a girl who has just run out on a similar party. Despite the differences in their backgrounds and avocations, the two find a strange kinship which leads to love. Douglas already is engaged to a society girl and here complications set in.

Assisting the principals are such players as Reginald Denny, Thurston Hall, Pert Kelton, Leona Maricle and Mary Forbes.

The latest Movietone News and a cartoon round out the program.

Modern French literature has displaced English and Russian, each of which had its day in turn, in popularity for translation into the Japanese language.

STOP AND GO DRIVING IS COSTLY

Every time you start up from a normal traffic stop, you can waste enough gasoline to drive a third of a mile!

To cut down the high cost of today's stop-and-go driving in village, town, and city, Shell engineers developed a way to "balance" gasoline.

This balancing process rearranges the entire chemical structure of gasoline—makes it "digestible" for your engine—just as cooking makes food digestible for you.

SEATTLE PLAYS PORTLAND NINE

SANTA MONICA. (P) — Skipper Spencer Abbott put his Seattle Indians through another vigorous workout today for the exhibition games with the Portland Beavers Saturday and Sunday.

With President William Klepper threatening to fine late arrivals in camp, notably First Baseman Jimmy Shevlin, Abbott spent considerable attention on his pitching staff.

Drafting of Dick Barrett by Cincinnati and the sale of Lou Koupal to the St. Louis Browns left the Indian mound staff weak-

Giants' chances of hanging on to the National League pennant.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (P) — With Catcher Bill Dickey's contract signing and Pitcher Lefty Gomez's arrival in spring training camp, the New York Yankees' holdout troubles seem gradually disappearing. But Manager Joe McCarthy, who needs a few more pitchers to fill out contract squabbles, appears to have his hardest work ahead — with Lou Gehrig, Red Ruffin and Joe DiMaggio.

PASADENA. (P) — Thornt Lee, 205-pound southpaw pitcher obtained by the Chicago White Sox in a three-cornered deal with Cleveland and St. Louis, will be a starting hurler this season. Work and faith will help. Manager Jimmy Dykes has liked Lee

SET HEARING FOR STATE BUDGET

SACRAMENTO, (AP)—The senate finance committee yesterday voted to begin consideration next Tuesday of the $446,000,000 state budget which was submitted by Governor Merriam to the legislature.

State Finance Director Arlin E. Stockburger explained to the committee the budget as presented, and it was trimmed to the bone and it was the hope of the administration that at the end of the next biennium there would be a surplus.

He declared, however, if the legislature increases appropriations beyond what they are at present, the state would not be in the "black" at the end of the coming biennium.

The committee sent out calls for all state department heads to appear before it beginning next Tuesday to explain their needs as to finances.

POLICE CARRY JOB NEWS

When a policeman knocks at your door, let him in. He may be bringing you a job.

That's what Charles Fallert, director of the National Reemployment service said today.

"In hundreds of cases it is impossible to get in touch with the person wanting the job soon enough to do any good," Fallert said, "and in cases of this kind, the police are notified and they immediately get in touch with the applicant and advise him that a job is available."

Purpose of the NRS is to bring job seekers and employers together. There are several calls for experienced, efficient secretarial and office workers, Fallert reported.

The service is free and is extended to workers and employers in all industries.

FANS THREATEN VINCE LOPEZ

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Police checked up today on threatening letters received by Vincent Lopez, Mexican heavyweight wrestler.

The "fan mail" accused Lopez of "dirty" tactics in his matches and intimated he would come to harm. He was inclined to disregard the threats, he said, until two men tried to force his car into the curb after his match with Dean Detton Wednesday night.

Lopez, who had lost the verdict, waved a revolver and frightened the men away.

Accepts $74,122 For Property After 10 Years

LOS ANGELES, (AP)—Hayden T. Hyatt accepted a warrant from the county yesterday for $74,122, ending a 10-year argument. Hyatt was awarded $75,000 on Nov. 1, 1926, for his property condemned for school purposes. He contended the property was worth more and refused to accept the money. Taxes against the deposit reduced the sum to its present figure.

A county statistician figured the money could have earned about $36,000 at ordinary interest rates in the past 10 years.

Junior Dry League Urged by Hobbs

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—Dr. John Randolph Hobbs of Birmingham, Ala., newly elected president of the Anti-Saloon League of America, today proposed a junior anti-saloon league to enlist the support of young people in a campaign for return of prohibition.

"We need such an organization through which the young people as such could work—and would work," he said.

"Certainly the time has come to put the young people into harness to teach them to carry the work on to victory in case we do not live to see victory ourselves."

Starts Suit Over Inheritance Tax

State Controller Harry B. Riley started suit here yesterday for inheritance tax assertedly due on property transferred by Ross Miller before his death on Jan. 8.

Riley named two daughters, Ava V. Miller and Florence E. Miller, as defendants. He asserts that $26,000 in real and personal property was transferred.

Willard Junior High News

Officers were elected for Mrs. Smith's H 8 D. C. and Gs social studies class Tuesday. Frances Geddes was elected president, Mary Jo Haskell, vice president, and Bob Winterbourne, secretary.

The judges were appointed by the vice president. They are Blaine Howard, Betty Jo Froeschle and Ted Finister. The assistant secretaries appointed by the secretary are Howard Bedford, Vinson Fortius and Elton Denner.

Miss Plumb has planned an interesting wild flower exhibit to be placed in the library. The collection will be identified and labeled, giving students a chance to learn the names. Miss Plumb is to be assisted by Jane Dill and would like anyone interested to contribute.

Miss Anderson has awarded points in speedball to those girls making the all star and varsity teams. The all star teams will receive 150 points and the varsity team 100 points.

The all star team includes Mary Lou Mann, Isabelle Relistab, Helen Fuller, Lucille Crawford, Barbara Freiniger, Annie Cazares, Dorothy Eley, Helen Holzgarfe, Marilyn Bear, Betty Hawkins and Pat Collins. The substitutes are Helen Tibbals, Mable Cradit, Marjorie Lockett and Patricia Paul.

The seventh grade varsity team consist of Margaret Lockett, Frances Nall, Marilyn Bear, Pat Collins, Marjorie Adams, Patricia Paul, Louise Kenyon, Betty Hawkins, Janet Coffing and Janet McFadden.

Helen Butler, Annie Cazares, Helen Gomez, Mable Cradit, Lillian Tucker, Helen Holzgarfe, Dorothy Raitt, Inetta Woodward, Betty Crawford, Doris Jacobs and Dorothy Eley make up the eight grade varsity.

Tentative plans for an honor society trip were discussed at a recent meeting, Feb. 26, the last 20 minutes of the first period in room 109. Any nearby college or other place with educational and pleasure points of interest is recommended for a destination.

Bronze pins were ordered by those who made the society for the first semester and silver pins for those remaining on the society for three semesters. Gold pins, eligible to the first semester students, are not ready at present, Mrs. Scott announced.

A very interesting trip was taken to the Griffith observatory by the H8G section accompanied by Mrs. Low, instructor, Thursday, Feb. 25. The group left Willard at 8:15, to get to the observatory in time for the morning lecture.

Due to the rain their plans were disturbed and only a small number of those who went to the observatory were able to go to Caltech, as they had planned. Those who went to the University saw the 200-inch mirror being ground and went all through the university.

The social living classes of Mrs. Lund and Mrs. Meeks are studying magazines in order to become acquainted with new ones. Notebooks are being kept by the pupils. A similar project on newspapers will be carried out later.

It seems that the rubber shooting epidemic has hit certain sections of the eighth grade. Remember that you aren't exactly babies either.

The HTN general science class, instructed by Mrs. M. D. Scott, has taken over the improvement of the garden on the north side of the building. Twice a week a foreman with four assistants goes out and returns with a report.

DATES SET FOR RAMONA PLAY

Anticipating the largest attendance in the history of the production, committees in the twin cities of Hemet and San Jacinto are completing plans for the fourteenth annual season of "Ramona," spectacular outdoor play to be given Saturday and Sunday afternoons, April 17-18, 24-25 and May 1 and 2.

The dramatic version of Helen Hunt Jackson's fervent love story of early California life is presented annually under the auspices of the people of Hemet and San Jacinto as a civic, non-profit enterprise. Already nearly 200,000 persons from every section of the country have witnessed the play in its more than 75 performances.

Presented in Ramona bowl near Hemet, the colorful play is performed by a cast of 250. All except the leading roles are played by townspeople who look forward each season to this noteworthy outdoor play. The acoustics of Ramona bowl are declared to be unsurpassed.

Weeks in advance of the initial performance the people of the two cities busy themselves with details connected with the elaborate production. Soon after casting of parts, rehearsals will start.

The Ramona Pageant association board of directors has named committees for the 1937 season and in charge of the 1937 season is Lloyd D. Mitchell, general manager, now in his second year in that capacity.

Smuggle Money Out of Poland In Aged Horses

WARSAW, (AP)—Several alleged currency smugglers were held today as police investigated their latest trick of using old horses to get money out of Poland in violation of national law.

An organized gang has been buying worn-out horses in Gdynia, police declared, and forcing small oil cloth bags of paper money down their throats.

Then the horses were driven over the Polish border into the free city of Danzig, the animals killed and the money bags recovered, officials said.

Navajo Indians Really Respect Mother-in-Law

GALLUP, N. M. (AP)—Mother-in-law may be queen in Texas today, but to Navajo braves she is still "the old owl," to be avoided with more fear than the very "chindi"—devil.

And it's no joke to the Navajos, either. Blindness and death, they firmly believe, are the twin penalties for son-in-law and mother-in-law who may chance even to see each other.

To avoid a surprise meeting, the watchword when a mother-in-law approaches is "here comes the old owl." Son-in-law departs in haste.

This taboo—one of the most stringent in the tribe's religion—is so ancient that Indian students have been unable to fathom its origin. But some cynical white married men are willing to hazard a guess.

The Navajos also believe that when a mother-in-law dies, her spirit enters the body of a bear. For this reason, the tribesmen will kill a bear only upon utmost provocation, and after a lengthy apology to the offending spirit.

And then, so the ghost won't find more ways to trouble them, the Navajos enlist the aid of a medicine man, and perhaps a white trader to ward off the jinx, and turn it into a pine tree or some other form of vegetation with roots firmly fixed.

It's all right for white men to kill bears, though. In fact, the Navajos encourage it.

Of H. D. Friedlander, Los Angeles business executive. It was found floating some distance from where the Los Angeles-San Francisco plane crashed in the bay. Bodies not yet found are those of J. Frank Gilmore, oil burner company executive of Los Angeles, and Remo Margaroni, San Francisco cafe owner.

BACHELORS TO GIVE DANCE

One of Santa Ana Junior college's outstanding social events is scheduled for tonight at the Pacific Coast club in Long Beach. The Bachelor's ball, semi-formal prom, will get under way at 9 o'clock.

Sponsored by the Bachelors, men's service club, the event promises to be one of the most brilliant of the social season. Bill Greshner, president of the club, who is in charge of the dance, announced that Stan Bortz and his Swingers will play. Max Cochran and his orchestra were originally scheduled to play, but conflict in dates made it impossible for him to be present tonight, Greshner said.

Members of the Bachelors and their escorts, as well as alumni members of the club, will dine at 7 p. m. The dinner is an annual affair. Warren Shutz of Anaheim, a former Bachelor member, will be the featured speaker at the dinner.

In connection with the ball, a group of Jaycee students, assisted by Dean of Men Calvin C. Flint and Dean of Women Eleanor Northcross, have organized a junior college date bureau. The purpose of the bureau as revealed by an announcement revealing its establishment said:

"The Santa Ana Junior college date bureau is established for the purpose of promoting better friendships among students, encouraging greater attendance at school social functions, and improving the morale of the student body."

Anne Wetherell, Dorothy Jenkins, Bob Fowler and Gordon Bishop established the bureau with the aid of the men and women deans. About 12 couples have been aided so far, it was said.

PUBLIC WARNED OF FEDERAL INCOME TAX DEADLINE MARCH 15

RETURNS ARE COMING IN SLOWLY

Regulations for Paying Are Outlined by Office Here

Uncle Sam will get you if you don't watch out—if you don't get your income tax paid.

People are filing income tax returns, internal revenue officials said today, but not many people, and not many returns.

Orange county is paying up its obligations to Uncle Sam about half as fast in 1937 as it did in 1936. Officials thought perhaps the new social security act may have slowed payments up.

But whatever the cause, March 15 is the deadline for federal tax payments, and most of the county's taxes remain to be paid.

Who Must Pay

Here are the facts about paying your tax:

Taxes must be paid by every single person with a net income of $1000 or more, every single person with a gross income of $5000 or more, every married couple with a net income of $2500 or more, and every married couple with a gross income of $5000 or more.

Income tax returns must be filed before March 15, 1937. The place is the internal revenue office, on the second floor of the postoffice building.

The tax to be paid is four per cent normal tax on the amount of the net income, in excess of the personal exemptions, credit for dependents, and earned income credit. A surtax must be paid on net incomes in excess of $4000.

Credits Outlined

In computing the normal tax, but not the surtax, there may be claimed a credit against net income of 10 per cent of the net earned income, but not in excess of 10 per cent of the entire net income. If the net income is not more than $3000, the entire net income shall be considered to be earned net income. If the net income is more than $3000, the earned net income shall not be considered to be less than $3000. Taxpayers are allowed to deduct from net income $400 for each child under 18 years of age, or for each dependent who by reason of age or infirmity is unable to earn an income.

PHILANTHROPIST DIES

I COVER THE CAPITOL

By SENATOR HARRY C. WESTOVER

The following is one of a series of weekly articles written by Orange county's senator, Harry C. Westover, covering activities of the state legislature at Sacramento. Opinions and comment expressed in this column are not necessarily those of The Journal.—Editor's note.

After some five weeks spent in Orange county I am quite convinced that the people of the county are reading my weekly communications. People from all over the county have spoken to me about them. Of course, I did not know the paper in which they had been read, but I am confident that they are being received in all parts of the county.

I am indeed grateful to the newspapers for their kind cooperation and will try to give unbiased comment upon the legislative situation here in Sacramento.

When the legislature reconvened this morning March 1 Orange county's official family was present. Clyde Watson and Tommy Kuchel were in the assembly and the writer was in the senate.

Besides the official delegation, Orange county was well represented. One of the first men from Orange county to come into the senate chambers was "Bill" Jerome. Bill is in Sacramento representing the County Mutual Fire Insurance association.

Justus Craemer of Orange county was also a visitor in the senate. Justus was looking over the senate. He probably feels more at home in the senate than he does in the assembly.

Ted Craig, former speaker of the house, but now working as a lobbyist, was seen during the opening session in the assembly. Chester Dale, who was the history clerk during the January session of the legislature, could not come back to Sacramento for the balance of the session. His place has been taken by M. E. Geeting of Santa Ana.

The legislature reconvened promptly at 12 noon. Very little business was transacted and adjournment was had in the senate at 12:27. The assembly adjourned at about the same time.

The senators and assemblymen are busy arranging for their committee meetings. Hereafter the assembly will not meet until 2 p. m. each day. The mornings will be given over to committee meetings. The senate will continue to meet at 10 or 11 o'clock in the morning. However, committee meetings have been scheduled from 8 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock at night. When members of the legislature are on six or seven different committees, and each committee meets two or three times per week, it can readily be seen that committee work will take a great deal of time.

There seems to be a desire on the part of many legislators for an early adjournment. Some of the legislators have expressed the hope that the legislature may adjourn by May 1. Others are not so enthusiastic and say that it

SPONSOR FOR RODEO GIRL SOUGHT

Await Action Here to Select Entry for Salinas Contest

By FRANKLIN GUTHRIE

Who will sponsor the selection of Orange county's entry in this year's sweetheart of the California Rodeo contest, July 15 to 18, held annually at Salinas, was still in doubt today.

Last year the local chamber of commerce took over the election which sent Betty Timmons, Tustin high school girl, to the rodeo as the county's entrant. She was not, however, officially able to compete for the "sweetheart" title because she has a year under the required age limit.

Two years ago Barbara Rowland, daughter of Mayor Fred Rowland, was the victor for the rodeo title, the event being held under the auspices of the county schools departments all over the state.

Trip to Mexico

It was relayed to the chamber of commerce last year because the schools had protested that they did not have the money to send the winner to the event.

Howard Wood, secretary of the chamber, has not received official word from the rodeo officials instructing him how to proceed in getting a representative from this district. From Salinas it was learned by Associated Press that the winner this time will be rewarded with a trip to Mexico.

Educational Trip

"Last year the winner was sent to Alaska, the year before to the Hawaiian islands, and two years before that to New York," commented Secretary Fred S. McCarg of the rodeo organization. Miss Rowland was recipient of the trip to the Hawaiian islands. It is the belief of the rodeo secretary that the Mexico trip will probably be more educational to the winner.

The competition for sweetheart is open to high school girls, with charm, personality and athletic ability counted as deciding factors in their selection.

SENATE PASSES BILL MAKING YORK A MAJOR

WASHINGTON.—The senate passed and sent to the house yesterday a bill by Senator Bachman (D-Tenn) to retire Sergeant Alvin C. York with the rank of major in the army. York was one of the best known of World war heroes.

FOREIGN NATIONS BUY MANY PLANES IN U. S.

WASHINGTON.—State department statistics revealed today that foreign nations had placed more than $3,000,000 worth of orders with American aircraft manufacturers last month. Argentina was the largest purchaser.

ADULTERY CALLS FOR PRISON IN GERMANY

BERLIN.—Adultery, under Germany's new penal code, will constitute "an attack on a state institution" instead of merely an offense against a marriage partner. Karl Doerner, ministerial counselor in the ministry of justice, explained today and will be punishable with imprisonment up to 10 years.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER BROKE, END LIVES

NEW YORK.—Suicides of Mrs. Margaret Averill Ramsey, 55, and her daughter, Alice Dean, 20, formerly of San Francisco, were attributed by Detective Daniel McCann today to want and poverty. He said Mrs. Ramsey and her daughter rented a room with their last $3—all that was left of a $50 prize they won last week in a radio contest for "the most heart-rending personal experience"—and turned on the gas.

Plan World Aviation Study

MANY DRIVERS FAIL TESTS

SACRAMENTO (AP).—Paul Mason, chief of the division of drivers' licenses, said today 4,756 applicants failed to pass the test in January for chauffeur's or operator's licenses.

Definitely refused licenses were 277; 1,252 licenses were suspended, and 458 were revoked.

Howard E. Deems, registrar, announced 50 highway patrol offices issued 306,060 plates and collected fees totaling $2,303,019 during the 1937 renewal period, an increase of 31 per cent more than during the same period last year.

Leeds Survey Line

That the director of finance grant easement No. 338 to the Standard Oil company in substantially the same form as that agreed upon in 1935, but containing a clear provision that the settlement is based upon the line fixed by the Leeds survey, with adjustments if there is in the future a judicial determination of boundaries.

That operators of questioned boundary line wells be given a reasonable time to provide authentic surveys to the state, and that if such are found to be trespassing, they be granted easements in the same form given other operators.

Steps To Recover

That the state take immediate steps to obtain a judicial determination of the boundary line separating tidelands from uplands. That where operators of questioned wells have not submitted surveys to the state, or other pertinent information, and there is reasonable cause to suspect trespassing, immediate steps be taken to recover the full value of oil and gas produced by those wells from the tidelands.

That the attorney general be directed to intervene for the protection of the interests of the state in any actions disclosing wells bottomed in state tidelands. That careful inquiry be made concerning several lawsuits pending in Orange county involving alleged slanting wells, to protect the interest of the state.

tributed by Detective Daniel McCann today to want and poverty. He said Mrs. Ramsey and her daughter rented a room with their last $3—all that was left of a $50 prize they won last week in a radio contest for "the most heart-rending personal experience"—and turned on the gas.

WILL SURVEY EFFECTS OF STORMS

Soil Conservation Will Be Studied in Orange County

Effects of recent rain storms on soil conservation work will be studied in Orange county March 12.

The soil conservation work was established last season by local property owners in cooperation with the Federal Soil Conservation service.

On March 12 a field tour will be held in the Lemon Heights and El Toro districts. It was announced by Farm Advisor Harold E. Wahlberg.

The tour will visit a number of farms and orchards where different methods have been used to stop the severe erosion of soil. Effective demonstrations of cover crop protection, contour terraces, gully control and other methods will be featured at the various stops to be made.

Invitation was extended to all property owners and operators who are interested in the problem of conserving soil and fertility to take part in the tour, which will start from the Tustin Hills Citrus packing house on Newport avenue near the end of East First street at 1:30 p. m.

The tour is being held as part of the national educational program conducted throughout the nation during national conservation week. The local tour is to be held under auspices of the farm advisor's office and the Soil Conservation service.

March 10, with finals to be held March 22. The new officers will supervise the commencement exercises of the sophomores. J. Russell Bruff is advisor for the class.

Officers who held posts for the first semester were Bob Wilde, president; Ralph Fuller, vice president; LaVonne Frandsen, secretary; and Edward Velarde, treasurer. All these officers are graduates of Santa Ana High school.

FOLSOM ESCAPE PLOT NIPPED

FOLSOM. (AP)—Prison guards yesterday nipped an alleged escape plot when they discovered a series of holes drilled in the bottom of Vladimir Trussynski's cell door.

The prisoner, who gained notoriety two years ago when two realistic looking wooden "automatons" were seized in his cell, had planned, Warden Larkin said, to cut the door away and slip out with a work gang.

Larkin says he believes Trussynski got the drill with which he had cut through the steel door, from the blacksmith shop, smuggling it past guards in his clothing. His cell mate, Joe Matlock, disclaimed knowledge of the presence of the drill, its use or the plot and, Larkin said, Trussynski assumed all the blame.

Both convicts were, however, placed in solitary confinement.

Supper Party After Concert Honors Talented Quintette of Guest Artists

Musical Arts Club Fetes Musicians

Townpeople Join in Charming Courtesies For Visitors

Restfulness and relaxation were the keynote of last night's after-concert supper, sponsored by the Musical Arts club, for the music lovers who attended the affair to honor Alberto Salvi and his supporting string quartet were still under the spell of a soothing, limpid hour of chamber music of the most delightful sort.

Just as after the Homer Simons concert earlier in the month, they were keyed up and exhilarated by the fervor and fire of his performance, so did they last night take on the softer, more pastel color of a different sort of concert.

Yet there was an undercurrent of friendliness and common interests between club members, the guest artists, and the many laymen who had made their reservations, so that the informal affair at Daniger's was really every bit as pleasant in its own way as was the previous supper.

Mrs. J. Leslie Steffensen (Mary Steffensen) presided at the center table and introduced the artists informally, after which she asked Mrs. Thomas Willis, Jr. (Cecil Fross Willis) to lead community singing. This proved to be very enjoyable, with Miss Beulah Parker at the piano.

The evening continued with songs and conversation, and several more of the amusing anecdotes based on embarrassing professional experiences such as were given at the first supper party were related by Santa Anans and Mr. Salvi.

A few words from Clarence Gustlin, prominent local musician, and chairman of the concert series, and a few from Katherine Jackson, noted Los Angeles harpist and teacher of Anita Louise, rounded out the evening.

Among the 40 or so people gathered to honor Mr. Salvi, Miss Caroline Solfrink, Herman Clemons, Robert Alexa and Alfred Mazzari, were Mrs. Steffensen, Mrs. Willis, Miss Parker, Mr. Gustlin, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kurtz, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Visel, Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Macurda, Mrs. R. Wagner, Mrs. Harold Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brackett, Henry Morgan of Long Beach, Mrs. Jay Hamill, Miss Maurie Hamill, Mrs. Charles Riggs, John Swarthout, Miss Katherine Jackson, Mrs. Alice Peterson, Miss Mildred Marcher, Miss Laura Joiner and Miss Ruth Oaks.

CALUMPIT PLANS MARCH MEETINGS

The initiation of Mrs. Louise I. Ray of Huntington Beach and Mrs. Bertha Bowland of Santa Ana was one feature of a meeting of Calumpit camp auxiliary of the United Spanish War Veterans that also served to announce several enjoyable social events for the next week.

On March 9 there will be a social evening in the Knights of Columbus hall for both comrades and their wives, and on March 10 there will be an all-day session at the ranch home of the W. W. Tantiingers on Newport road, again for both the camp and auxiliary.

Honored guests at this week's meeting were Mrs. Laura Hinkle of Pomona, department guard of California, and Mrs. Anna Springer of San Bernardino, a former Calumpit member.

Mrs. Estella Dresser was named head of the March pot-luck committee, and it was announced that delegates to the state convention scheduled to be held in Eureka this May will be elected at a meeting on March 16.

MRS. ROSSITER IS HOSTESS

A little group of friends who have been playing bridge together for 25 years was entertained Tuesday afternoon in the Heliotrope drive home of Mrs. V. A. Rossiter. The get-together was particularly

WATER PROBLEM DISCUSSED AT SECTION MEET

Col. S. H. Finley told members of the third household section of the Eboli club about the Metropolitan Water District yesterday in his talk on "Water Problems" at their luncheon meeting at the clubhouse.

Luncheon was served at small tables in the section room, each appointed with a low bowl of spring flowers, and the group later adjourned to the lounge for the program.

Mrs. Lucy Preble opened the meeting and then turned it over to Mrs. R. G. Sutton who introduced the speaker. Col. Finley gave a most enlightening explanation of the new district and how it will solve water problems, giving his audience a clear understanding of the matter.

Hostesses yesterday were Mrs. Sutton, Mrs. W. S. Rose and Mrs. E. T. Battey.

WINS AWARD IN TALENT CONTEST

An honor came to one of Santa Ana's most talented young acrobats recently when Miss JoAnn Hollereth, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollereth of 1528 West Sixth street, was awarded an honor certificate in a Los Angeles baby talent contest.

JoAnn, who recently appeared at the Masonic temple on a program for the White Shrine, has received her training at the Vera Getty dance studio, and is being trained for the professional stage.

festive in that Mrs. Rossiter had arranged her dessert table with decorations honoring the patron saint of March, using green tapers, green candies and ice cream and cakes carrying out the shamrock motif.

Great jars of peach blossoms decorated her pretty living room, in which the guests, all present or former residents of Orange, enjoyed their afternoon of contract. Mrs. J. B. Spanetta was awarded first prize, and second and third awards went to Mrs. Will Knuth and Mrs. Al Tomblin.

Members of the little club attending were Mrs. H. S. Huff, Mrs. Jess Ainsworth, Mrs. Nelson Edwards, Mrs. J. C. Crawford, Mrs. Herbert Elijah, Mrs. George S. Harper, Mrs. Spanetta, Mrs. Knuth, Mrs. Tomblin and two Santa Ana guests, Mrs. E. B. Collier and Mrs. H. C. Kier.

Pioneer Is Feted At Luncheon

Violets and hyacinths brought the beauty and fragrance of early spring into the appointments for a birthday table at which Mrs. Mary Whitson was accorded place of honor Wednesday when her mother, Miss Martha Whitson, entertained at luncheon in honor of her mother's eighty-sixth birthday anniversary.

Members of the family gathered in the Whitson home at 814 North Broadway, and other friends called with good wishes throughout the afternoon, bringing flowers and remembrances for the birthday celebrant who has been a resident of Santa Ana for half a century.

Luncheon guests making wishes as they blew out the tiny candles on individual birthday cakes were Mrs. L. L. Whitson and Mrs. W. L. Whitson, daughters-in-law of Mrs. Whitson.

Reynold of Garden Grove, a foster daughter; Mrs. Ella Spencer, and Miss Martha Whitson the hostess.

PUBLIC INVITED TO SHRINE BRIDGE PARTY

Damascus White Shrine of Jerusalem is completing plans for a desert bridge next Tuesday afternoon in the Masonic temple, to which the public is invited. The affair is to honor the new worthy high priestess, Mrs. Paul Hyde, before she goes to the Supreme Shrine, it being the custom of the Shrine to honor their head at this time each year.

Desert will be served at 1 o'clock and will be followed by games of contract and auction, with prizes in both and special awards.

Tickets may be secured at the door, it is announced, or may be reserved by phone. Mrs. Jennie Shippe, 3432-W, or Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis 3256-W.

Mrs. Florence Wright is general chairman of arrangements, with the following committees assisting: Freshments, Mesdames Marian Wallace, Mildred Tallies, Della Maude, Marie Beisel and Maggie Marie Read; tables, Vada Berry, chairman, Hazel Paquette, Helen Nell, Dolly Pope, and Lillian Dawson; carding, Della Maude, Ryan, chairman, Stella Whisenan, Florence Trolley, and Lillian Vinson.

W. C. T. U. HEADS HAVE MEETING

Reports from presidents of all the county unions were heard Tuesday when the county executive board of the Women's Christian Temperance Union met at the Orange Methodist church.

After Mrs. Lola Dunham Grimm had opened the meeting and Mrs. Amy Evans had led devotions, the work of each division was told, with those speaking including Mrs. William Rogatsky of Anaheim, Mrs. Minnie Reed of Costa Mesa, Mrs. Mamie Settle of El Modena, Mrs. Cora Hale of Fullerton, Mrs. Estelle Harper of Garden Grove, Mrs. Flora Beatty of Newport Beach, Mrs. Minnie Neville of Orange, Mrs. Cora Bruner of Placentia, Mrs. Effie Means of Santa Ana and Mrs. Mabel Hazen of Tustin.

A talk on pending legislation was given by Mrs. Margaret Utt, and the resignation of Mrs. T. H. Walker as county evangelistic director was accepted, as was that of Miss Sedalia Cubbison as legislative director.

A luncheon and afternoon of department reports concluded the session.

ELFSTROMS ARE DINNER HOSTS

To honor Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of Cincinnati, Ohio, who are visitors in Santa Ana, this week, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar F. Elfstrom entertained at a little dinner party Wednesday night in their new home at 1912 Heliotrope drive.

Their guests, in addition to the Smiths, were Mr. and Mrs. John Scripps, Toy Director of Ventura, and Curtis Hillyer of San Diego.

Spring flowers and an embroidered cloth graced the pretty table arranged by the hostess for the dinner.

Club Honors Member On Birthday

Mrs. Harwood Sharp's 80th birthday anniversary, which was celebrated on Tuesday by members of the modern poetry section of the Eboli club, was the occasion for another delightful surprise the following day at the regular meeting of the Auld Lang Syne club.

Members gathered at the home of Mrs. A. J. Knight in Orange, and other friends, including members of the Unitarian Alliance church, also joined with them in the day of sewing and the covered dish luncheon to which all contributed.

At the dessert time, Mrs. Knight brought in, as her part of the luncheon menu, a beautiful birthday cake which she placed in front of Mrs. Sharp, and showers of greetings were voiced by the assembled friends.

During the brief business session, the club members expressed sorrow at the loss of Mrs. Carrie Leebach from the welfare office, through whose hands has gone much of their charity work of sewing and collecting garments for the needy.

HOUSEHOLD SECTION TO MEET TUESDAY

Fifth household economics section of the Eboli club is to have its luncheon at 12 noon next Tuesday at the Doris Kathryn, later going to the clubhouse for cards.

Those not able to attend are asked to call Mrs. Lynn Ostrander, phone 5516, or Mrs. Anna Bowman, 5013-J. These two members, with Mrs. Roy Browning and Mrs. Tarver Montgomery, are to be hostesses for the day.

STANNARDS ARE HONOR GUESTS

Dr. and Mrs. Ray E. Stannard, on furlough from their missionary hospital station at Ningpo, China, were honored guests at a meeting of the Woman's society of the First Baptist church Wednesday afternoon.

The session opened with a delicious luncheon served at tables decorated with table-boxes of jonquils, daffodils and hyacinths, and at the officers' table were seated the Stannards and those members whose birthday anniversaries occur in March. A lovely green-iced birthday cake was set on this table, too.

At the conclusion of luncheon Miss Lula Minter introduced Mrs. Stannard who talked on the responsibilities of a missionary's wife.

For the afternoon session, an attractive stage setting had been arranged, with the foreground of the platform representing a dock scene, at which a well improvised ocean liner was anchored. On the dock were many boxes and bags of supplies, the output of the White Cross workers under the direction of Mrs. E. A. Bell.

These were addressed to Dr. Stannard, and when he sailed in a few weeks, will be part of the equipment he takes back to his missionary station.

From the dock, Dr. Stannard addressed the group, giving many interesting accounts of his work in the women's ward of his hospital, and after this Russell Crouse presented several delightful solos.

Mrs. Elmer Steffensen conducted a devotional period on the topic of "Search Light—Throw Out the Life Line," after which Miss Minter presided over the choosing of a nominating committee. Mrs. Minnie Holmes, Mrs. David Meyer and Mrs. J. P. Williams will supervise the selection of officers for next year's work.

CLUB MEETS AT FORGY HOME

Mrs. O. K. Forgy entertained her afternoon bridge club on Tuesday of this week at her home at 204 South Sycamore street. The little group has abolished refreshments of any kind except confections, and meets for the sheer pleasure of the game.

At the close of the afternoon table prizes were awarded to Mrs. O. H. Egge and Mrs. George Briggs.

Those present were Mrs. Walter Prince, Mrs. Charles Kendall, Mrs. E. S. Morrow, Mrs. O. H. Egge, Mrs. Ralph Mosher, Mrs. A. W. Rutan, Mrs. H. T. Duckett and Mrs. George Briggs.

MARY STODDARD

She Feels Children Were Given Her to Make Up for Love Cast Aside

By MARY STODDARD

Some time ago Jenny wrote asking whether our readers thought she should marry a man who is devoted to her when she does not love him. She married when very young a man whom she did not love, but she was afforded the opportunity for extensive travel which, in a way, recompensed her. Her husband died, and now, at 35, she has who urges her to marry him is steady and has a good position. She wonders if she will find real happiness without real love.

Here is a letter of advice I received for her today:

Dear Miss Stoddard: Please let me tell "Jenny" not to marry the man she does not love. I did, and no one will ever know the heart-aches I have. We have been married 14 years. He is a good provider. We have two youngsters and he doesn't seem to care a great deal for them. He goes out and spends several nights each month at taverns and that, I cannot stand, at it reflects on our babies.

I listened to my mother and left the only one I loved or ever will love, except my children, to marry my husband. He had a good paycheck and steady work while the other was an army man. I've tried to forget him, but everything I do is for him in my mind.

I have not seen him in over 16 years, but his face is etched in my mind. Sometimes, I too, feel like I'm in a fog, then I nearly give up and leave.

If "Jenny," as she says, has never known real love, let her walk straight out of this fog alone instead of wandering deeper into it; let her hang on and the right one will come along and then what happiness she will have. I sincerely hope she will not throw it away as I did. I feel that my children were given me to take the place of that love I cast aside, so I am living for them and their happiness. Sincerely,

"ANOTHER JENNY."

X. N. O. CLUB GATHERS

Mrs. B. A. Hershey entertained the X. N. O. club members last Wednesday afternoon, the members gathering for several pleasant hours of sewing and chat on that bright spring day.

At the end of the day, Mrs. Hershey served a salad course at the small tables, each of which was centered with a flower pot of marigolds and appointed in the Easter motif.

Mrs. Harry Edwards of Laramie, Wyo., who visited Mrs. E. E. Edwards in Santa Ana, was a guest of the club on Wednesday. Members enjoying the afternoon together were the Mesdames Don T. Edwards, E. E. Edwards, W. R. Edwards, W. L. Harbert, M. O. Johnson, E. E. Lentz, R. A. McPhie, E. E. Perry, H. R. Trott and the hostess.

New Women On Campus Honored

Associated Women Students of the junior college honored those young women who have come on the campus this new semester when they entertained at a lovely spring tea Wednesday afternoon at the home of their dean of women, Mrs. Robert Northcross, at 1315 Spurgeon street.

Officers of the A. W. S. were in charge of the affair, with Miss Llewellyn Allen, the president, as general chairman, assisting Mrs. Northcross in receiving.

Miss LaVonne Frandson and Miss Frances Was, who headed the dining room committee, presided at the pretty tea table, which was centered with yellow pansies on a silver tray and tall yellow tapers in silver holders. Fruit blossoms decked the other rooms, where the guests were received from three to five o'clock.

Miss Allen, Miss Virginia Shepard, and Miss Ann Wetherell, officers of the association, were the general committee. Miss Shepard headed the refreshments committee, assisted by Miss Frances Was, Miss Irma Swartz, and Miss Betty Lee. Miss Wetherell was in charge of invitations, and Miss Was and Miss Frandson were assisted in the dining room by Miss Barbara Berger and Miss Barbara Hallman.

BUSINESS GIRLS PLANNING BIRTHDAY PARTY

Wrycende Maegden will be 11 years old on March 16, and gala plans are underway for a dinner that night at the Doris Kathryn tearoom.

"Charm," the theme which has been the topic of the club for several weeks, will be the central idea in decorations and program that evening, and a speaker and bridge are planned after dinner. Miss Rowena Newcomb, toastmistress, will call for a series of toasts at the tables. Reservations are to be made by March 13 with Miss Roma Mays, who is general chairman, or with the club president, Mrs. Virginia Fritcher.

Next Tuesday night, the Wrycende Maegden, who are the business girls' branch of the Y. W. C. A., will participate in the Y. W. C. A. membership dinner in the clubrooms, and are to have full charge of decorations.

CHILD STUDY ON WEDNESDAY

Child Study section will be entertained next Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. H. Hoiles, 2010 Victoria drive, Mrs. Aubrey Glines, the leader, said today.

Co-hostesses with Mrs. Hoiles will be Mrs. Earl Elson and Mrs. George Peterson. They will serve a dessert course previous to the evening's program, which is to be a talk on "Keeping the Young Child Properly Amused" by Miss Hazel Nell Bemus, art teacher in the high school.

Mrs. Glines will appoint a nominating committee to select officers for next year.

ARMY OUSTER ON HARBORS OPPOSED

Newport Group Hits Plan To Remove Military From Control

Washington may want to take control of rivers and harbors away from the board of army engineers, but members of the harbor committee of the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce are far from in favor of the change. They are definitely against it.

Report that the army engineers were to be ousted was brought to the attention of the harbor committee by Rufus Chao, president of the San Diego harbor commission. Newport's harbor boosters cast their vote in opposition. They want the army men to stay on the job.

It was suggested that opposition to any such change would be general, and that there was little chance that passage of the reported proposal could be pushed through.

To File Report Newport's harbor committee furthermore pointed to the work done in Newport bay under army supervision has been made the subject of a feature article in the 1937 edition of "Marinas," a nationally circulated report of official character covering the development of recreational harbors of the country. Copies of the report were ordered permanently filed with the committee's minutes.

Army engineers' recommendation of $15,000 annually for maintenance of Newport harbor has been received favorably at Washington, City Engineer R. L. Patterson reminded the committee, adding letters of confirmation from Congressman Sheppard and Senators Johnson and McAdoo.

Studies Legislation Special committee appointments were made to study State Senator Harry Westover's bill creating a plan for harbor control. J. B. McNally was named to report on measures regulating speed of vessels and other matters of navigation, as introduced by Assemblyman Ted Kuehl of Anaheim. Those present at the meeting were Walter S. Spicer, chairman; Hubbard Howe, Heinz Kaiser, P. A. Palmer, J. B. McNally, R. L. Patterson, Dr. Howard Seager, Lew H. Wallace, and Harry Welch. Spicer reported tentative plans for a dredging program to take care of the West Newport area, which has been mutually agreed upon by the officials in joint conference recently.

Garden Secrets

By Willis Cadwallader of Blanding Nurseries

"The groves were God's first temples."

—William Cullen Bryant.

Flowering trees are used in the landscape setting to give height and permanency to the flower border. What is more beautiful than the glorious magnolia when its great cup-shaped flowers are open to view? Some may favor the tulip tree with its tulip-like flowers of yellowish-orange.

All of them, the flowering oak, the flame tree, the fringe tree, the tipu tree, the coral tree, the cape chestnut, the acacia, the jacaranda, the locust, the lily of the valley tree, the orchid tree, the violet tree, the flowering eucalyptus, and flowering fruit trees are equally important as growing bouquets.

Flowering Trees There are about 20 species of the magnolia genus and six of these are found in North America. This genus was named by Linnaeus in honor of Pierre Magnol, a French botanist. It has the largest flowers of any tree in cultivation.

The small flowering oak (Tricuspida) grows to a height of 25 feet. It looks like our California live oak, but the latter does not produce flowers. This one has quantities of small white, bell-shaped blossoms, and needs lots of water.

The flame tree (Sterculia Acetifolia) will grow 50 feet tall and has large maple-like leaves. When in bloom in the early summer the flowers are often mistaken for those of the flowering eucalyptus. It is very well suited to southern climatic conditions.

The orchid tree is small, growing only 15 feet high, and it does not do so well on the coast as further inland, but when its large three-inch flowers of pink, purple and yellowish tones are blooming, there is nothing prettier.

A tree not very well-known to our California gardeners is the lily of the valley tree. It is well worth trying to grow for anyone wanting a small showy tree, for it has myriads of little white, cup-shaped flowers in late summer and fall.

Another small flowering tree is the Jacaranda. It is covered with clusters of light violet-blue tubular flowers in the spring. The cape chestnut comes from South Africa and reaches 50 feet, and in summer is covered with rose-lavender blooms.

The flowering eucalyptus is so well-known that it hardly needs to be mentioned, but it is one of the most beautiful of trees when covered with its blossoms of scarlet, pink or yellow. There are several varieties, ranging in height from 10 to 40 feet.

Another that hardly needs mentioning is in bloom now—the golden yellow acacia. It is exceptionally beautiful blooming in late winter and early spring, and grows, according to species, from 15 to 60 feet tall.

Polished Performance of 'Importance of Earnest' Seen in Dress Rehearsal

By ROCH BRADSHAW

About the first thing that happens, Victor Morrison goes around mumbling, "On for the first act," but nobody pays much attention. The dress rehearsal's supposed to start at 7:30 and it's 8:30 when Vic starts talking to himself that way.

I guess you'll laugh, all right, like you're supposed to, when you see the Community Players produce "The Importance of Being Earnest" at the Ebell clubhouse tonight and tomorrow. I got to see the dress rehearsal last night and because of so many people going in and out and throwing scenery around, it was hard to tell just what parts I was supposed to review and what ones were just thrown in extra.

That's the way it is in a dress rehearsal. Last night proved that when they go on tonight, they'll give a polished performance.

Tie-Wrapper But they told me the parts where I laughed belonged in the play. You can't beat that scene between Mary Swarthout and Florence Brownridge Nalle when they're both engaged to Earnest. Really swell. Earnest is Bob Guild and he does a good job of it. He tries to get christened and actually makes you believe he's going to do it.

Anyway, when Vic said his lines about the first act I thought the play was starting. And there I was trying to wrap an 1895 tie around Guild's neck and stow away the extra where the audience wouldn't see it. Bob was in the play, but he didn't seem to care either, and I got discouraged and went away.

The first big thing that came on the stage was the front end of Burr Shafer's pipe. Sure enough, Burr was on the other end of it. But Burr, it seems, isn't in the play. He has something to do with scenery.

Serious Thoughts He and Gladys Simpson Shafer, director, started talking across the footlights to Mrs. Eleanor Harnois about the thousands of potted plants and things she's got to get for the second act. But they couldn't get her worried, either. They'll be there tonight.

The next thing I remember, there were Lawrence Patterson as Algernon, and Guild as Earnest, alone on the stage. Good guy, Patterson. Guild tried to get him to have a serious thought in life, but didn't make much headway.

There was a place where Earnest and Mary Swarthout, as Gwendolyn, got engaged. You liked that, all right, but Gwen's mother, Lady Bracknell, followed her lorgnette in and messed it up. That was Gertrude Horn. The only trouble was she did too darn good a job of being a villainess. Maybe it was then, or perhaps later that Leslie Steffensen, as the rector, started trying to toss that top hat onto his head and make it stick. But that was off stage. If you want to see some smooth, natural comedy on the stage, go and see Leslie. Fine preacher, with an eye for business, like christenings. Footnote: He never did get the topper on his head.

Drinks Up Twice The part where they snatch Bob Guild out of Mary Nalle's satchel is one of the best bits in the play. Third act. But you'll have to see the play to get an explanation of that. Mary Nalle gives it.

Now, you take Mary Nalle. Of course, it's a play about the nineties, but Mary, as Miss Prism, really takes you back. You'll see. Back in the nineties, they had butlers. In 1937 they have school teachers who play the parts of butlers. Russell Hathaway in act one and Emmett Thompson in act two. Very butlerish.

Watch for the spot where the butler serves sherry to Algernon. Last night Algernon got to drink sherry twice because they went through that bit twice. Looked like a frameup. But there was only water in the decanter. Incidentally, Algernon got to kiss Florence Nalle twice for the same reason. On the forehead. But that looked like a frameup too.

Florence Nalle was the simple, beautiful country girl, Cecily Cardew. And what a girl! No wonder Algernon fell for her! Now, folks, this isn't a sermon for little children, but it's really hard to tell who does the best job in the play. Which ought to indicate a smooth, well-balanced performance.

BUTCHERS MEET WILSON MEN

More than 100 butchers from communities throughout Orange county gathered Wednesday night at the K. P. hall here to discuss their mutual problems and meet officials of the Wilson Packing company.

There was a display of Wilson merchandise, featuring country-made hams.

The dealers discussed means to continue improving close cooperation between dealers and the packers.

Tony Whan, in charge of sales promotion, was the speaker. W. W. McKee, manager, and a number of department heads also were present.

Sandwiches were served for refreshment, in which country-made ham also was featured. A number of hams were given away.

Shaw Admits Egotism, Says Modest Man is Nuisance

LONDON (AP).—Dramatist George Bernard Shaw conceded today he might be guilty of "swanking a little" because "a modest man is such a nuisance."

"Americans adore me," he smiled in complacent answer to Professor Archibald Henderson of the University of North Carolina, "thought I have insulted them for their own good as long as I have been writing."

Dr. Henderson, author of such books as "Is Bernard Shaw a Dramatist?" and "Bernard Shaw, Playwright and Prophet," declared recently Shaw's "boastfulness and egotism" resulted from "a split personality and an inferiority complex."

The playwright nonchalantly admitted he had about 20 personalities on tap, but he was frankly puzzled by the inferiority complex. There was one thing Henderson said about him, however, that Shaw agreed with completely—a description as "the most distinguished dramatist in English literature since Shakespeare."

"That," Shaw beamed, "is really quite sound."

Adult Education News

The new electric welder is now installed in the high school shop. Instruction is free to any who are interested. The class meets Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 7 to 9 p. m. in the high school shop.

Thomas H. Glenn, of the English department of the junior college, will speak to the Wednesday night English class at the Willard Junior High, 1342 North Ross street on March 10. Glenn will discuss "Words," telling many things of interest concerning their derivations, meanings and usage.

Many classes are cooperating in plans for the all evening school program in the Willard auditorium to be given March 12. Claire Hanson's class in fencing will present a bout between acts.

A fashion show will also be given between acts. The women will wear garments they made in Mrs. Blanche Palmer's sewing classes. Craft classes will also have exhibits.

Last Friday morning Leslie of the county auditor's office met with the class in civic affairs. He gave a very interesting discussion of the annual report.

Miss Jean Goodwin used a spot light last week on the still life model. Students found the effect quite pleasing.

Mrs. Mary L. Sherman, principal in the Los Angeles elementary schools, brought some of her teachers over to hear Miss Clare Conenwett Thursday evening on flower arrangement. Those in the visiting group were Lena Rogers, Lucille Gann, Jeanette Nettie, Pauline Butcher and Henrietta May.

Gray Harvey has taken over the physical education classes in the county jail.

Miss Mabel Pruitt is meeting her drama class Friday evening for a dress rehearsal in the Willard auditorium. Watch next week for full announcements concerning the March 12 and the March 14 program.

Women in the first aid class are busy learning how to bandage wounds. There are more ways than they had ever dreamed of.

Miss Mary Israel from the visual education department of the Los Angeles county schools was the speaker at the Tuesday evening class which is studying visual aids in teaching. The class meets at Lathrop and is composed of teachers from all over the county.

The orchestra is working hard on its concert program to be given March 14.

Mrs. Golden Weston talked to Woman's club in Costa Mesa Friday on "The Art of Growing Old."

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Eby went to Calico mountains near Barstow last Sunday. They brought back some interesting pictures of Odesa canyon.

Quite a number of men are getting interested in metal crafts.

Opportunity is being given in all classes this week and next week to contribute to the junior college student loan and evening school student body funds.

These warm days have resulted in an increased attendance—at least that may be the reason.

Mrs. Malbone Graham will give the third lecture in a series of four on our foreign relations policy at the high school auditorium next Monday evening, 7:30 p. m.

Brick Dust

Here and There With The Journal's
Rambling County Editor
By T. N. (BRICK) GAINES

MARCUS M. McALLEN, and Bill Gallienne rang the gong at Huntington Beach last night. And to that hard-working pair should go the cigars.

McAllen and Bill, with a few dozen hard workers thrown in for good measure, staged one of the finest chamber of commerce sessions it has been the pleasure of this department to attend.

They had entertainment galore. Interesting speakers, beauty contest winners, fine music, nice music, nice people—even newspaper folk, there on their good behavior—and most wonderful food. What more, even in Huntington Beach, could one ask?

For me, the highlight of the evening was when Major John Thomas (Socks) Africa cried for mercy.

John Thomas said: "For crissake sake, you this and that and so, lay off me, will ya? Pick on McAllen—he's only my boss. Or pick on Gallienne. But leave me out all this limelight stuff, please, huh?"

So I'll be forced to leave John Thomas in the darkness until I run out of sock copy. (Pun, for newfolk.)

At this meeting, S. R. Bowen was a marvelous master of ceremonies. He did a neat job of trick-turning, when talking about native Californians. He carried things along in fine shape, and is to be congratulated for a good job.

Ed Ainsworth, the charm-chisler from Los Angeles, also made a good talk—one I haven't heard before, which was a blessing. Charles Horwath, All-Year club talker, vowed the crowd with a polished speech on "How much is a tourist?"

The only other thing that remains in my mind is Harry Overmyer's efforts to retain a front seat when the Holly club talker, vowed the crowd with a polished speech on "How much is a tourist?"

By this time Mayor Henry Fite, City Clerk Bill Holmes, Judge Fred S. Warner and the rest of the boys should be moved into their new quarters at San Clemente's recently-purchased city hall.

Any invitations to housewarming are being greedily accepted by this department these days!

Those firemen at Midway City! Now they're planning a dance.

First they plant lawns, in between fighting fires. Then they turn loose in a big way and build a new fire hall. Now they've turned their minds to more aesthetic pursuits, with a huge ballroom struggle slated for March 17.

Proceeds, however, will be used to pay off remaining debt on the fire hall, so I guess it's all right with us!

Speaking of housewarmings, Harbor Master Tommy Bouchee has announced he will greet visitors in his new office a week from Saturday.

Tommy's new three-decker headquarters should be all slicked up by March 13, and he's promised that on that day no newspapermen will be thrown into the bay, which looks promising.

So, on March 13, if anyone wants to get in touch with the county department of this paper, they'd better call the harbor master's office!

Notes to you: See where the first left-hand-turner received a ticket at Newport's overhead crossing. I think Judge D. J. Dodge, who handles such traffic cases, should sentence drivers who break the law on that viaduct to a long term of crossword puzzle solving. . . . What's happened to Fidel Sepulveda, San Juan Capistrano's first telephone "girl"? Haven't heard from him for a long time. . . . And what's become of the Brea Yacht club? Probably waiting for next winter for their first regatta—this wind probably has dried up their racing course. And Doc Curtis won't be able to do any mud-cat fishing. . . . Folks are still raving over the dinner Yorra Linda women served to the Associated Chambers some time ago. . . . A few more warm days and we should see results of this peppy-planting spree, shouldn't we? Or when do poppies bloom hereabouts, anyway? . . . For prettiest line of blooming acacia trees look at 'em leading to Doheny Palisades from Capistrano Beach—or is it Doheny Park? Beautiful, anyway. . . . Charlie Crawford, erstwhile coastline reporter for Long Beach paper, leaves scandalous note, but at same time invites us to dinner. Whoop! . . . For barracuda and bigger yellow-tell are running at San Diego. Should be along hereabouts within two weeks, experts say. . . . And others claim spotfin are biting on salt bait on Huntington Beach pier. . . . Small editorial relative, Carolyn, voted as having most foolish names for pets in school. Two cocker pups, one called "Walder", after girl-friend's middle name. Other is "Churnhead", for no apparent reason. . . . Wonder what became of George Wright's pup at Costa Mesa that he named "Frick"? It probably ended up in the pound. . . . Skinny Skirvin seems to read the dictionary for his fiction. . . . Ask him about it—g'wan. . . . What's Art Anderson

NEW HOME-BUILDING ERA STARTED AT HUNTINGTON BEACH

PROGRAM FOR DRIVE TOLD AT DINNER

M'Callen Is Honored at Victory Banquet; 150 Attend Session

HUNTINGTON BEACH.—With sights set upon a goal which will bring hundreds of new residents to this community and transform it to a home-owners' paradise, 150 members and friends of the chamber of commerce met last night for the first annual "victory banquet" in the Golden Bear cafe.

Guest of honor at the affair was M. M. McCallen, new leader of the chamber, who has been active in furthering plans of the organization to obtain new homes for the district.

Bowen Speaks
S. R. Bowen, prominent oil man and former chamber of commerce president, sounded the keynote of the evening when he explained the "victory" of the community in emerging from a period of development which brought hundreds of oil derricks to the town. Through employment of new methods, including "zone" drilling by whipstocking, residential areas now may be preserved as such, he said.

Charles Horwath, director of public relations for the All-Year club, was speaker, pointing out need for realization of value of tourists to any community and especially to Huntington Beach.

The tourist "business" was more productive than the citrus industry by $103,000,000 last year in bringing in primary new income, he said, explaining that during the past year visitors paid $2,760,000 in gasoline taxes and $2,429,000 in sales tax in California.

Tourists Valuable
He pointed to the place of the tourist business in the new Huntington Beach home-building campaign, urging a new understanding of value of the visitors to such a community.

Ed Ainsworth, Los Angeles columnist, spoke briefly, introducing Miss Marion Reeves, Huntington Beach home-building campaign, arranged by A. N. Lockhart, was presented during the evening. Frances Dexter played violin numbers and danced, while Lynn Mayberry gave impersonations and played harmonica solos. Andy Young sang his Westerners, well-known radio troupe, played several selections and sang. Miss Eleanor Miller entertained with violin selections during the dinner hour.

Guests at the affair included Supervisor John Mitchell and Mrs. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Blodgett, Sam J. Williams, Bratton, deputy district attorney from Los Angeles; William Van Fleet, vice president of the Shell Oil company; Fred Collins, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Don Harwood, Santa Ana; A. H. Alexander, state petroleum engineer, and Mrs. Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacLin, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hunter, Long Beach; and W. E. Bryan, Fullerton and Mrs. Phil Riley.

LAGUNANS BACK FDR PROPOSAL
LAGUNA BEACH.—Unanimous endorsement of President Roosevelt's proposals to alter the Supreme Court was voted in the first regular meeting since the recent campaign of the Democratic club of Laguna Beach which met Wednesday night at the chamber of commerce.

The resolution passed will be forwarded to all legislators. An amendment also was voted to extend to Congressman Jerry Voorhis the appreciation of the club for his long stand in favor of the supreme court legislation.

Inefficiency of the local WPA administration due to the change of administrative offices to San Diego was expressed. A resolution to Harry Hopkins, Congressman Harry Sheppard, and the state WPA Director Lawson, urging return of WPA administrative offices to Orange county was voted. A committee composed of Walter E. Hennings, George E. Thompson, William Tattersfield, and Henry Hall was appointed to secure the endorsement of the city council to the proposed change.

Wedding of Mesa Pair Announced
COSTA MESA.—It came as a complete surprise to many friends of Miss Doris Gibson and William Cooper when announcement was first made Wednesday of their marriage in San Bernardino on Jan. 11.

The former Miss Gibson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Gibson, is a student at Fullerton Junior college and active in church and Epworth League work. Cooper is a son of William F. Cooper, and both are well known in Costa Mesa.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LIONS MEET AT BOARD MEETS GARDEN GROVE

COSTA MESA.—The official Sunday school board meeting was held Monday evening in the social hall, beginning with a pot-luck dinner at 6:30 p. m. Several members of the board were unable to be present, due to the American Legion meeting being held the same evening, so no report was obtainable from the committee on heating.

Ray Beardsley, chairman of the community survey committee, reported that the work is going ahead rapidly, each doing his part. In observing the safety week program chairman Floyd Andres presented George Peterkin of the California State Highway Patrol in a talk on the subject as it applies to the traffic situation in Orange county. Orange county, he said, now has the highest rating in the state in regard to the safety of school buses.

These are the president, J. W. Crill, Rodney Collins, Dr. E. A. Kraushaar, Clair Head, Lester Frink and L. H. Burr. The club was presented with new song books by the Santa Ana club president, Jerry Hayes, who was extended thanks for his gift.

BEACH MURDER PLAY SLATED
LAGUNA BEACH.—Murder comes to Laguna again with the Community Players putting on their latest thriller, "Three Taps at Twelve" this week-end March 5, 6, and 7 at the Playhouse.

A woman's idle wish to see a "murder masterpiece" committed is strangely rewarded in this fast-moving mystery, according to Barbara Frost, who is directing the production under the supervision of A. Greville Collins.

Bowman to Be Class Speaker
WINTERSBURG.—Members of the Lindbergh class of boys are sponsoring an unusual program next Tuesday evening when they will present Howard Hill, boy and arrow expert, and his five-reel sound picture of mountain lion and bear hunting in Wyoming.

A comedy of animal adventures also will be shown. Hill also is slated to give a demonstration in the use of the bow and arrow. The entertainment will take place in the social hall of the Methodist church and will be for the benefit of the class. The public is invited to attend.

ORANGE.—M. C. Jones, principal of Huntington Beach High school, spoke on phases of the convention of superintendents of the National Education association held recently at New Orleans, at a meeting of the Rotary club Thursday noon.

The speaker was elected president of the department of secondary school principals. He told of the efforts of the schools to keep social forces apace with the advances in other lines. He said many educators are convinced that unless these social changes come within a decade, the country will drift into Fascism. V. D. Johnson was program chairman.

SCOUT BASE IS SEEN FOR NEWPORT

NEWPORT-BALBOA.—Possibility of establishment of a shore base for all Sea Scout "ships" in this area was indicated today, following a meeting of Scout skippers in Newport Harbor Yacht club Wednesday evening.

Need for such a base was pointed out by many officials at the meeting, and a committee will be appointed to investigate possible shore bases and equipment needed for the many Sea Scout organizations in this area.

The Orange County Sea Skipper's club was formed at the session, with T. E. Bouchee named chairman. Other officials are Walter E. Dabney, skipper of the Huntington Beach ship, vice-chairman and W. C. Tucker, mates; Harold S. Case, skipper of Tustin ship and B. Borchard, mate; Dabney from the Huntington Beach ship and Harry Paulson, skipper and Ralph Watson, mate of the new Santa Ana Junior college ship; Don Schwartz and Wallace Varfelt, representing the Wallace organization, Harrison E. White, county Scout executive and Harry Welch, Newport chamber secretary.

Attending the session were Bouchee, skipper of Newport ship No. 10 and Harry Hyde, secretary; Byron Quivley, skipper of Santa Ana ship No. 36; Don Heath, skipper of Riverside No. 10; Bergen, Fullerton skipper and Don Fuller and W. C. Tucker, mates; Harold S. Case, skipper of Tustin ship and B. Borchard, mate; Dabney from the Huntington Beach ship and Harry Paulson, skipper and Ralph Watson, mate of the new Santa Ana Junior college ship; Don Schwartz and Wallace Varfelt, representing the Wallace organization, Harrison E. White, county Scout executive and Harry Welch, Newport chamber secretary.

On that date federal, county and city officials will inspect the new building and will greet visitors. Members of the Coast Guard and many interested yachtsmen are expected to attend the official opening of the new structure, Bouchee said today.

Attending the opening will be Carl Metcalf, head of the federal boat registration division and Otto Miller, deputy customs collector in charge of the San Pedro division.

The handsome new nautical structure, which will contain many innovations in marine equipment and decoration, should be finished shortly before the date set for the open house, Bouchee said today.

CAPISTRANO BOYS PLAN BENEFIT

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO.—Future Farmers of America are holding their big benefit party to night in the Capistrano Union high school auditorium, according to an announcement by their advisor, C. C. McCary.

A full evening has been planned by the group with a show to include the newsworld, a feature picture, "Let's Sing Again," and a color cartoon. Following the showing of the picture, a dance will be held.

Members are reporting considerable activity in sale of tickets for the party, since the one selling the most will be awarded a trip to the annual Future Farmers of America convention which is held each year at the California Polytechnic school in San Luis Obispo.

Freddie Huns, chapter president in charge of the dance and show, reports all arrangements are completed for an entertaining evening tonight. This week Ernest Deer, Billy Callis, Douglas Jones, Charles Sites, and their advisor, C. C. McCary, representing the local chapter, attended the Future Farmer day at the National Orange show in San Bernardino.

MEET E. W. VAUGHN, RED AND WHITE GROCER

Another member store of the Red and White organization is located at 852 North Garnsey street, and is operated by E. W. Vaughn, who affiliated with this great merchandising organization more than a year ago, and is very happy with the association. The Vaughn store is a complete food market, carrying the best in foods. The ownership rests with Mr. Vaughn and he gives the business his careful and personal attention. The grocery, meat, fruit and vegetable departments make up in neat arrangement one of the most attractive stores in the city. It is a place where people like to trade as is evidenced by a steadily growing business.

Assisted in the management of the store by Mrs. Vaughn, the service is prompt and satisfactory. Serving the public with food is a particular problem these days. Those who sell must know what the public prefers and keep up with the demand. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn will give you a welcome. Call on them.

Lose Suit Over Son's Detention

SAN DIEGO. (AP)—Arthur and Mary Confar are losers today by a unanimous jury verdict in their $57,000 damage suit, brought in connection with the detention of their son during investigation of the death of a playmate in 1934.

They charged the detention of Jackie Confar, then 9 years old, after the body of Dalbert Apollonian, 7, was found in San Diego bay, caused them great suffering.

Defendants in the action were several law officers and members of a clubwomen's committee.

Utah to Test Pension Plan

CHELSEA, Wash. (AP)—The first state-wide "test" of the Townsend old age pension plan will be launched in Utah, Isom Lamb, who sponsored an experiment here, said today.

Lamb said he would meet representatives of six Utah cities in Salt Lake City Monday.

Lamb said Salt Lake City and Los Angeles had asked to be headquarters for his proposed nationwide test.

Lenten Meditations

"Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbor and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies." Read Matthew 5:43-48.

Somehow or other we must get the meaning of Agape out of the control of our shifting likes and dislikes. Huxley once said he observed that the universe was not much affected by his likes and dislikes. Christian love, likewise, ought not to be at the mercy of our vacillating tastes and distastes.

The best classical scholar whom I happen to know says that whatever else this greatest of all Christian words means, it means "a steady set of the will." His suggestion helps us get the word out of the quicksands of our unreliable likes and dislikes into the rock of duty and character. Nine times out of ten it would be the sheerest hypocrisy to pretend that you like your enemy, but you are still under bonds to love him. So construed we are not falsifying words if we say that all through the bitterness of the civil war Lincoln loved the south, and Lee loved the north. Their spirits shone, on both sides of the line, as lights in darkness.

Prayer: Almighty God, who makest thy sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendest thy rain on the just and on the unjust, grant us a portion of thine equal charity, to friend and foe, to neighbor and to stranger, that we in our turn be not strangers to thy perfection; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Mattson Suspect Shaves Off Beard

ABERDEEN, S. D. (AP)—Police officials were sitting it out today with Tony Cansellas, Mattson kidnapping suspect, until he can regain the growth of whiskers he shaved off Tuesday.

The 32-year-old former resident of Ohio was scheduled to have his picture taken while he wore his coat and hat—apparel that fitted the description of clothing worn by the kidnaper of 10-year-old Charles Mattson of Tacoma, Wash. But ceremonies were postponed when Cansellas emerged from his cell with the tonsorial operation.

Officials announced that as soon as Cansellas regains the manly growth, picture taking will be resumed.

ENFORCE RULES ON LOBBYISTS

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The senate finance committee at its first meeting of the session yesterday voted to enforce its rule barring unregistered lobbyists from appearing before it.

The rule provides that only members of the legislature, state, city and county officers may appear before it regarding pending legislation without having to obtain an "advocate's card."

"Advocate's cards" may be obtained by registering with the senate sergeant at arms, the person's name, whom he represents and his connection with the company or organization which is employing him to speak before the committee on pending measures.

President to Fish Off Texas

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Roosevelt announced he hopes to go on a fishing trip off the Texas coast in late April.

He told reporters he had been looking over some charts to see where the tarpon would be running at that time.

If he makes the trip, he said he would probably use the Presidential yacht Potomac, boarding it at New Orleans after a journey there by train.

The President leaves March 10 for a short stay at Warm Springs, Ga.

Rejects Prospective Wives But He Must Pay Agent

NEW YORK (AP)—Abe Hirschfeld was "too choosy" in the matter of "prospective wives" to whom he was sent by a "matchmaker" after he made a $10 down payment.

So Magistrate Anthony F. Burke ruled yesterday, after hearing from Hirschfeld this tale of woe: "The first 'prospective wife' sent me to was bowlegged and short. The next one was so fat she couldn't even sit on a chair without rolling off."

"And the third—what ankles! They were so thick I couldn't have got my hands around them if I had tried."

He said he rushed in protest to the "matchmaker" who told him: "The trouble with you is, you want to choose from a harem."

Magistrate Burke said, "It is only fair, Mr. Hirschfeld, for you to pay him for the three 'prospective wives' he furnished you with."

"After all, that is only $1 a wife—you will be returned the $7 difference."

Egypt Monks on 'Stay-in' Strike

CAIRO, Egypt. (AP)—The Egyptian government has ordered police to attack a desert monastery where embattled monks have been on a "stay-in" strike for months, refusing to admit either church or civil authorities.

The monks, of the Coptic faith, refuse to leave the monastery of Deri-El-Moharrak, near Assiut, unless the present abbot is dismissed.

Easy Recipes Lenten Dishes

Red & White Spaghetti or Macaroni always welcome

• Serve your family Red & White Spaghetti a la Italian with meat balls and Parmesan Cheese. You'll find that it is a meal in itself.

Baked Red & White Macaroni with cheese always hits the spot and has many enthusiastic boosters. A little onion chopped fine usually gives this just the right flavor.

Baked Salmon Loaf. Here's another favorite

• Baked salmon loaf has its advocates and makes a delicious "main course" for your Lenten meals. A few rashers of bacon on top will give it a savoriness that delights the palate. Red & White Red Salmon is the most popular variety. Their delicate firm texture and rich full flavor have made these America's fastest selling brands.

Salmon Croquettes. The king's dish.

• Like the Egyptian Pyramids, these salmon croquettes have been the favorite standby for years. Rolled in cracker crumbs and served with a slice of lemon they make a dish fit for a king. Many hostesses like to serve them with creamed gravy and peas. To get the best results, select a firm red salmon with a generous amount of oil. Better still, ask for Red & White Red Salmon and you will be serving the best.

Home Idealized in Lovely Panel

Household Arts by Alice Brooks

Your Heart Will Be in This Simple Stitchery

PATTERN 5297

A rustic home in a flower garden with the old-time well giving just the right touch, proves delightful "needle-painting." It's done to the greatest part in single stitch; a touch of French knots and lazy-daisy stitch give realism to the flowers. You needn't frame it—just line it and hang it up. In pattern 5297 you will find a transfer pattern of a wall hanging 15 x 20 inches; a color chart; material requirements; illustrations of all stitches used; directions for finishing wall hanging. To obtain this pattern send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) to The Journal, Household Arts Dept., 117 East Fifth Street, Santa Ana, Calif. Be sure to write plainly your name, address and pattern number.

Oh we let go now and then.

That's how the natives, trailing us, scored their first victory. I heard Morgan call for help...

No, no, you can't go back, you're only one against 10,000, sir, and...

Men, stand aside.

A mile back I found him. Down. A score of blacks dancing...I polished them off...and came on.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Please Explain, Administrator Lawson

"DUE TO PRESENT POLICY," wires State WPA Administrator William Lawson from San Francisco to The Journal, "establishment of independent office in Orange county is not possible."

Politicians hate to change policies when it might cut down the number of jobs available in a special section where they want to dish out favors or win support.

If the WPA were to set up a head office in Santa Ana—instead of running Orange county affairs from San Diego as at present—San Diego politicians and their friends would lose several jobs.

We do not say that this actually is the "present policy" of the state WPA, but at the present time we can think of no other explanation why this county's affairs are being handled like a San Diego suburb.

Here are some good reasons for establishing a WPA headquarters here:

1. It should speed up governmental action on local projects. Under the "present policy," some Orange county projects are sent to San Diego where they are sunk without a trace, never being heard of again.

2. A local office would provide several better type relief jobs for Orange county citizens. San Diegans get this work now.

3. Much time and mileage between the two cities would be saved as frequent "supervisory" trips no longer would be necessary.

4. A closer contact would be established between taxpayers of this area who are helping to foot the bill and the officials in charge of WPA work.

Any one of those reasons is full justification, in our opinion, for establishing a county headquarters here.

If the "present policy" of the WPA administration calls for rejecting a common sense proposal like that, then it's time for officials in charge to explain themselves satisfactorily or to remain smeared with the suspicion of making a political football out of national relief.

A department of humor should be established in every American university, says Ed Wynn. In the case of some of those radio gags, a department of archeology would do just as well.

The Mooney Case Again

NEWEST group to try to unlock Tom Mooney's prison door is the California assembly rules committee. It wants to work out a sort of legislative pardon for him.

This shouldn't cause great surprise. Mooney went to jail 20 years ago for the San Francisco Preparedness day parade bombing. Since that time it has been pretty well shown that his conviction was due largely to perjured testimony. Even Judge Griffin, who tried the case, admitted the prisoner got a raw deal.

Opposition to Mooney's release seems to be slowly fading. Decent people are more or less overlooking their prejudices against his unsavory pre-prison record and Communist friends in order to examine the actual justice of the conviction.

And the anti-Mooney crowd is beginning to realize that their despised target probably is more influential in jail as a symbol of oppression than he would be if he were free to address pink teas and chautauqua audiences.

President Roosevelt takes to the radio on his court plan. We wouldn't mind hearing what Chief Justice Hughes has to say, too.

$50 a Day—For What?

WE MIGHT find it in our heart to forgive Flood Plan Lobbyist George Malone for squandering the county's money on expensive meals and taxi bills in Washington. We might even forgive his $50 a day salary.

Because it's not how much ham and eggs a lobbyist eats for breakfast nor how many times he taxis around the park. It's the results he gets that count.

So far Mr. Malone has managed to dip into Orange county pockets for exactly $3,096.72, but hasn't managed even to get to talk about the plan to the board of army engineers!

How much longer are the taxpayers going to buy $1.10 breakfasts and pay $6.90 taxi bills to $50-a-day men who don't even contact the officials they are supposed to see?

What would be the difference between a 5-4 decision among nine supreme court members and a 8-7 decision among 15?

'The American Way'

PROBABLY you've noticed those brilliant, anonymous, billboards showing "The American Way." They depict the ideal, contented American family, happy and prosperous—with the inference that poverty, unemployment and its hideous companions have been banished forever.

The idea probably is all right. But we can't understand why the people who put up such signs pick locations that reek with squalor and wretchedness like one we saw the other day—with its miserable hovels, half-clad children and dump heaps in the background.

The American way is the best way, no doubt. But those pretty pictures don't fool anyone.

Business and Politics

IT COMES to light in the senate campaign expenditure report that the Grand Old Party spent $14,198,202 to get the American people not to elect Alf Landon president.

Roughly speaking, the cost to the party was 85 cents for every ballot cast for the Kansan.

The Democrats spent only $9,228,406, however, to campaign for President Roosevelt's re-election. This was an average of 33 cents per ballot.

And yet some Republican master minds have been heard to say that the Democrats are poor businessmen!

Whimsies

of O. O. McIntyre

Thoughts while strolling: Impossibilities—Vincent Lopez with his hair mussed and Quentin Reynolds with a stay comb effect. The "tun, tun, tun" of the "Ille de France" pulling out. That glittering new flower shop on Park avenue in the Fifties.

Memo r y: Sharpening the butcher knife on the edge of the milk crock.

Grandest oldest of the literary crowd: One Read, aged 84, riding the elevated and see New York's back door. Add beautiful hands: Claire Boothe Luce's. But none tops those of Helen Menken.

A star fell out of heaven: Merle Oberon. They c't laugh Clifton Webb out of going nowhere without his mother. A pretty swell trait indeed. Whatever became of Wilda Bennett? A crop of look-alikes: Serge Einstein and Norman Bel Geddes, M. Lincoln and Schuster and Sam Hoffenstein and Frank Scully and Washington.

Rhyme: A lady I favor is Phyllis Haver. Also: Nick Kenny in a shepherd plaid henny. Gypsy Rose Lee's autobiography in capsule: From Minsky to mink. Hendrik Van Loon is shrinking for goodness sake! The only writer I know built for an eye-glass ribbon is Charles B. Driscoll.

Age of the old melodramatic lines—Father to erring daughter in "Way Down East." "Out of my house, I'll have no dinner of your getting!" Abe Lyman suggests the second baseman on the Keukuk team. And what a short-stop Joe Laurie, jr. would have made for the Three I league.

Percy Crosby, I imagine, devotes more thought and energy to Christmas cards than almost any sender. His are true works of exquisite art the receiver may frame and hand down to posterity with pride. His last Christmas offering has come belatedly from the printer. It is reproduction of a Crosby painting of a Virginia sunrise, a spreading suffusion of rare tints on his own estate at McLean, Va. It is one of those images of dawn, a song of sympathy in color, that flutters the heart, catches the breath and makes the beholder breathe a fervent little prayer to be a better boy. We think of Crosby as the creator of the beloved cartoon moppet, "Skipper," and as great as that is, he does far greater things.

One of the interior decorator boys has what he calls a Narcissus room in his flossy apartment on the very piping rock stretch of East End avenue. Where Lawrence Tibbett and so many others live. It is done entirely in mirror save for a silvery sheen of ash gray carpet. The walls, ceiling and doors are entirely covered with looking glass as are the chairs, center table and lamp stands. The indirect lighting casts a pink glow.

My interest in the curbside salesman and his raspy spiel never lags. I was on the sidelines today when one with a Ned Sparks manner and voice tossed away his brown paper cigar and went into his pitch in an alley—the only alley I know in town, by the way—near Grand Central. He was hawking a 25-cent fountain pen and for good measure chucked in a set of collar buttons, a needle threader and a vest pocket barometer. His asides to his shill were classic in cynicism when the customers refused to buy. I remained for a half hour and he made but two legitimate sales. Certainly with that much enthusiasm and endeavor in any other line he could have made 10 times as much and not faced possibility of a police pick-up, either.

The most unusual stage job of the season was that of a professional screamer. She got $28 a week to let go a lulu of an off-stage shriek seven times a week. In private life she is Mrs. Phyllis Bolce and her top pay was $50 for singing siren, blood-curdling screams in a Joan Crawford picture. Screaming comes natural to her. It is a gift. When the time comes for her to do her stuff she simply opens her mouth and gives. And usually registers an inch or so above high C. As she says: "It is good work, if you can find it."

Oh, for the return of the good old times when everybody made $5 a day and spent $10!

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON.—Under cover of the state department's immutable silence some vigorous wrangling is going on regarding U. S. neutrality toward Spain.

The inside story is significant and goes back to November, just before the President sailed for Buenos Aires. At that time the new Spanish ambassador, Fernando de los Rios, was called into a secret conference with Secretary Wallace, Senator Nye and others, who urged him to have a personal talk with Roosevelt.

This was arranged. The talk lasted for two hours. During it de los Rios presented sensational evidence of American discrimination against the Spanish loyalist government. In one case loyalist banks had refused to handle routine exchange transactions for the Spanish government. The ambassador pointed out that the Spanish people were struggling for objectives similar to Roosevelt's New Deal, that the essential issue in Spain was democracy versus dictatorship.

Roosevelt obviously was impressed. At that time his speech to be delivered at Buenos Aires already had been written, but he revamped it entirely, made it a ringing championship of democracy, a scathing denunciation of dictatorship.

It was so strong that Mussolini ordered his puppet press to unloose a counter-blast.

ABOUT FACE

Upon Roosevelt's return from Buenos Aires he jumped into the supreme court and congressional matters, leaving the Spanish situation in charge of the wealthy young men of the state department.

This it should be noted, was at the exact moment France's star seemed to be settling. Until that time—and as long as the rebels were winning—the state department gentlemen paid scant attention to Spain. But once the Spaniards in state department appeared victorious, it was different.

MUNITIONS EXPOSE

About this time, Joe Green, Mr. Hull's munitions expert, held one of the most unusual press conferences in state department history. Details about all munitions shipments are guarded with strict secrecy. Companies are required to register foreign shipments with the state department, but names of companies and other details are not revealed. Getting information on airplane shipments to Japan, for instance, is like pulling the teeth of a wounded bull.

Despite this, Mr. Green suddenly summoned the press, announced with great glee all the details of a shipment of airplanes to the Spanish government by the Vimarair Company of Jersey City. He even announced the number of engines, types of engines and airplane parts.

To get the significance of this it is necessary to remember that when revolution broke in Brazil not long ago, the state department persuaded the navy department to postpone acceptance of several Martin bombers in order to let the Brazilian government get immediate delivery.

Again, when the last revolution broke in Mexico, the state department arranged with the war department to sell U. S. shells and rifles to the Mexican government. In other words, all emphasis in the past was put on help to the government in power, and the Spanish situation is the first in which the United States has refused to help a friendly government.

RECRUITS BANNED

Since then the state department has gone even further. First it persuaded the justice department to prosecute American citizens passing passage for those who wanted to enlist with Spain.

This brought various protesting delegations down from New York, pointing out to Cordell Hull that at that very moment U. S. fliers were employed by the Chinese army with the blessing of the state department, that U. S. volunteers had fought in all sorts of foreign wars, and that during Mussolini's Ethiopian war, Italian officers openly recruited on the streets of New York without a whisper of protest from the state department.

Finally Brian McMahon, assistant attorney general in charge of the recruiting prosecution, found past legal precedents extremely dubious, and virtually informed the career boys they had no case.

MEDICAL BAN

Against the sending of ambulance units, doctors or nurses to the aid of the Spanish government.

This has aroused the ire of various prominent doctors, including Dr. Haven Emerson of Columbia, Dr. Walter B. Cannon of Harvard, Dr. William H. Park, former president of the American Public Health Association, and Dr. Bela Schick, discoverer of the Schick test for diphtheria.

As members of the Medical Bureau of the Friends of Spanish Democracy, they planned to send doctors and nurses to Madrid. They point out that the traditional policy of the United States always has been to send Red Cross and other relief units on acts of mercy during foreign wars.

All of this is carried on behind the state department's austere cloak of silence, with the White House for the most part ignorant, and with benign Cordell Hull sitting satisfied and ostrich-like, clucking to his career chicks, oblivious to what is going on among them.

Author of the state department's medical ban is 78-year-old Assistant Secretary Moore. In this case he has gone so far that even some of his associates do not believe his order can be legally supported, among them John Morgan, in charge of the state department's Spanish affairs.
